Baro Tumsa: The Principal Architect of the Oromo Liberation Front Asafa Jalata, 2024-09-16 This book identifies and examines the role of Baro Tumsa in clandestinely bringing together a few Oromo nationalists of diverse backgrounds from all over Oromia the Oromo country to establish the Oromo Liberation Front OLF between the late 1960s and the mid 1970s in Oromia and Ethiopia The Haile Selassie government s destruction of Oromo movements mainly the Macha Tulama Self Help Association MTA was an immediate reason for the birth of the front While most Oromos have supported and sympathized with this liberation organization the colonizers and their agents have vilified and attacked it to make the Oromo society leaderless For almost a half century the OLF has been struggling to uproot Ethiopian Amhara Tigray settler colonialism and its institutions from Oromia to end the domination and exploitation of the Oromo The book also examines the roles of leaders and social movements in organizing oppressed peoples for collective actions by creating organizations that have visions and missions to liberate themselves It is a case study of global social movements and leadership studies

The Oxford Handbook of Historical Ecology and Applied Archaeology Christian Isendahl, Daryl Stump, 2019-01-10 The Oxford Handbook of Historical Ecology and Applied Archaeology presents theoretical discussions methodological outlines and case studies describing the field of overlap between historical ecology and the emerging sub discipline of applied archaeology to highlight how modern environments and landscapes have been shaped by humans Historical ecology is based on the recognition that humans are not only capable of modifying their environments but that all environments on earth have already been directly or indirectly modified This includes anthropogenic climate change widespread deforestations and species extinctions but also very local alterations the effects of which may last a few years or may have legacies lasting centuries or more With contributions from anthropologists archaeologists human geographers and historians this volume focuses not just on defining human impacts in the past but on the ways that understanding these changes can help inform contemporary practices and development policies Some chapters present examples of how ancient or current societies have modified their environments in sustainable ways while others highlight practices that had unintended long term consequences The possibilities of learning from these practices are discussed as is the potential of using the long history of human resource exploitation as a method for building or testing models of future change The volume offers overviews for students researchers and professionals with an interest in conservation or development projects who want to understand what practical insights can be drawn from history and who seek to apply their work to contemporary issues Fighting Against the Injustice of the State and Globalization A. Jalata,2002-02-08 The book examines compares and contrasts the African American and Oromo movements by locating them in the global context and by showing how life chances changed for the two peoples and their descendants as the modern world system became more complex and developed Since the same global system that created racialized and exploitative structures in African American and Oromo societies also facilitated the struggles of these two peoples this book demonstrates the dynamic interplay between social structures and human agencies in the system African Americans in the United States of America and Oromos in the Ethiopian Empire developed their respective liberation movements in opposition to racial ethnonational oppression cultural and colonial domination exploitation and underdevelopment By going beyond its focal point the book also explores the structural limit of nationalism and the potential of revolutionary nationalism in promoting a genuine multicultural democracy The Horn of Africa Paul B. Henze,2016-07-27 There are many books on individual countries of the Horn but this one is unique in treating the region as a whole stressing interactions among as well as within Sudan Ethiopia and Somalia and in turn their relations with neighbouring regions of Africa and the Middle East The author summarizes the history of the region from earliest times to the 19th century and then concentrates on Russian and American involvements
