Someone Bought the House on the Island Ken Anderson,1998 A Game Most Dangerous Megan Derr,2025-08-09 Rain is on spring break with his friends and bored out of his mind when he is not pining after his best friend Whitney anyway Then a storm knocks him overboard and he winds up trapped on an island with an ominous reputation Island People Henry R. Danielson,2018-01-15 When I think of what Julie and I did it humbles me We were right out of college just married working in a job I didn't care for She got the invitation I took a test and we both accepted I was of draft age but there would be no deferment Can you imagine joining the Peace Corps where you would train to teach in segregated Macon County Alabama You and your wife northern whites in 1967 would train to teach in a segregated all black school How would you manage Think of going to Likoma Island on Lake Malawi in Central Africa You would live for two years on a two by five mile island with no gun no civil authority no police The island was home to crocodiles spitting cobras green mambas puff adders and other deadly vipers and often fatal illnesses but no resident physician just five thousand Africans and you Think about teaching school to eighty adolescent African kids forty in a classroom none of whom had any notion of Western culture What if your home were attacked by a raging African man whose family had been killed by white soldiers What would you do Ever thought about what it is like to be a teacher in Western New York How would you deal with 125 adolescents daily Imagine preparing lessons for five classes each day grading papers teaching and then driving thirty miles to graduate school and back before a late dinner each night Suppose you had summers off and you and your wife learned to sail and on your twenty fifth anniversary you sailed the six hundred miles offshore to the island of Bermuda Ever been in a full gale on a little boat at sea We were island people finding our way Private Island James Meek,2014-10-07 The essential public good that Margaret Thatcher Tony Blair and now Cameron sell is not power stations or trains or hospitals It's the public itself it's us In a little over a generation the bones and sinews of the British economy rail energy water postal services municipal housing have been sold to remote unaccountable private owners often from overseas In a series of brilliant portraits the award winning novelist and journalist James Meek shows how Britain's common wealth became private and the impact it has had on us all from the growing shortage of housing to spiralling energy bills Meek explores the human stories behind the incremental privatization of the nation over the last three decades He shows how as our national assets are sold ordinary citizens are handed over to private tax gatherers and the greatest burden of taxes shifts to the poorest In the end it is not only public enterprises that have become private property but we ourselves Urgent powerfully written and deeply moving this is a passionate anatomy of the state of the nation of what we have lost and what losing it cost us the rent we must pay to exist on this private island
