Congress. Subcommittee on Monopoly, 1967 Jesus Consumer Michael L. Klassen, 2013-12-10 Some scholars believe that Jesus punitive instructions about possessions and material goods amount to little more than antiquated sayings By contrast Jesus Consumer combines modern consumer research with the latest writings on historical Jesus to propose a model for contemporary consumer behavior that pays serious regard to Jesus consumption teachings The author argues that Jesus consumer teachings possess the greatest potential to help us effect positive change in our personal lives and social relationships We need to interpret and enact his teachings symbolically not follow them literally Tourism in National Capitals and Global Change Robert Maitland,2014-10-14 At a time of increasing city competition national capitals are at the forefront of efforts to gain competitive advantage for themselves and their nation to project a distinctive and positive image and to score well in global city league tables They are frequently their country s main tourist gateway and their success in attracting visitors is inextricably linked with that of the nation They attract not just leisure visitors they are especially important in other growing tourism markets for example as centres of power they feature strongly in business tourism as academic centres they are important for educational tourism and they frequently host global events such as the Olympic Games And there are more of them first the number of capitals has grown as the number of nation states has increased and secondly pressures for devolution mean more cities are seeking national capital status even when they are not at the head of independent states We need to understand tourism in capitals better but there has been little research in the past This book develops new insights as it explores the phenomenon of capital city tourism and uses recent research to examine the appeal of capitalness to tourists and explore developments in capitals across the world This book was published as a special issue of Current Issues in Tourism Better for Life Daniel J. Jones,2010-06-01 Why is this happening to me is a question being asked by millions of people who have lost their livelihoods in today s economic recession In Better for Life you will find answers to this question as you explore the trials of several biblical characters and the purposes for those trials Within these pages you will not only discover the purpose of your trial but you will also learn what you can do about it You can t change your situation but you can change yourself God s plan is not merely to get you out of your trials but to transform you while you are in them Take a journey to discover the reasons for your hardships and learn how you can use these circumstances to your advantage Remember God is not so concerned with making life better for you He is interested in making you better for life So if you are tired of struggling under the burden of your circumstances then it is time to become better for life Flight from Destiny Michael Sandusky,2007-12-12 You may remember David as the boy who killed the giant with a slingshot You may see him as the King of Israel You may know that many of the Psalms are attributed to him However do you know how those Psalms were written Did he just sit down one day and decide to write a nice Psalm Nothing could be further from the truth The Psalms were a natural part of his everyday experiences in prayer admonition to the public discourses with friends and music Flight from Destiny Psalmwriter The Chronicles of David Book I is the first volume of a six volume devotional novel on David and his life The boy who became a king may amaze you not because he was extraordinary but because he was so ordinary He was just like each of us Here is a boy who made his way through adolescence to manhood by the skin of his teeth He fell in love and then lost his love He acted crazy in front of royalty showed great courage in facing the giant and yet was scared to death of those who hunted him for one purpose to kill him A number of hair raising exciting adventures several of which bring him close to death will keep you on the edge of your seat You may cry but you will surely laugh at some of the hilarious situations in which he and those around him find themselves Sometimes a person just needs to face life as it is and go on David had a hard time with this thought For years he felt his anointing by Samuel had been for the purpose of killing the giant He resisted the thought that it was for any other undertaking This was not the destiny of a shepherd Heroes were the ones who should become kings Yet during this confusing time of his young adult years he encounters four men that will have a mighty impact on his life One of them will save his life and another of them will have the audacity to tap the warriors chest in chastisement Who will save the man and his followers when they are backed up against a chasm with six thousand soldiers against them The answer may surprise you Get ready to empathize with David Be prepared to experience his heartache self doubt loneliness despair defeat and depression as well as his life of praise prayer and victory We will look in on his marital problems and raise his children with him If we are ordinary like the man of this volume then we may just see ourselves running from life sometimes discouraged and defeated We question God and search for him In fear we run from lifes problems and although we may not have someone trying to kill us we still struggle with our marriages and our children We still hurt terribly when we have lost that mate or that best friend We want to know what Gods will is for us and how not to succumb to temptation and then when we do fall how to come back to God with a contrite heart A Line out the Door

Gorman,2023-03-29 This study explores the relationship between the individual person the self the divine and other people in the writings of the apostle Paul and the Roman Stoic Epictetus It does so by examining self involving actions expressed with reflexive pronouns myself yourself etc in various kinds of sentences for example Examine yourself and You do not belong to yourself After situating the topic within the fields of linguistics and ancient Greek the study then examines the reflexive constructions in Epictetus s Discourses showing that reflexive texts express fundamental aspects of his ethic of rational self interest in imitation of the indwelling rational deity Next the investigation examines the 109 reflexive constructions in Paul providing an exegesis of each reflexive text and then synthesizing the results Paul s reflexive phrases are essential statements of his theology and ethics expressing an interconnected narrative Christology narrative apostolic identity and narrative ethic Most importantly the study finds that for Epictetus concern for others is a rational means to self realization whereas for Paul concern for others is a community ethic grounded in the story of the indwelling Christ and is the antithesis of self interest
