Lisa's father has six months to live and a story to tell about a boy sent to Auschwitz a boy who lost everything and started again It's a story he has kept hidden until now But Lisa doesn't want to hear it because she has secrets too No one at school knows she is Jewish or that her dad is sick not even her boyfriend But that's all about to change And so is she A powerful Holocaust story of love loss and hope Jayne Joseph Melbourne Holocaust Museum Lost Loves Andrew Grof, 2015-12-15 In this first person account a composer confronts cancer as well as an increasingly debilitating dementia that threatens to rob him of both his past and his present In something of a last ditch effort he does his best to resurrect nearly forgotten loves as well as the music of the greats that once sustained him In the process he finds the past no less difficult to deal with than his present and is forced to confront a most unflattering image of himself The crisp yet lyrical writing is crisp yet lyrical and alternates between staccato and legato depending on the particular stages of the composer's illness The Hamlet like narrator is at once dangerously close and forbiddingly distant from the reader with a climax in death's full assault with hitherto hidden revelations
