Something More Gollancz Sf S:

Something More Paul Cornell,2002 In the far future Britain is a divided land ruled by the great families In the wilderness between the cities lies Heartsease a grand country estate now quite empty but mysteriously well tended Reverend Jane Bruce of the Reformed Church of England is sent to bless the house for a family who wish to occupy it But there s something her soldier bodyguard isn t telling her about the house s past Booth Hawtrey cursed to live forever is investigating the house for the alien masters who have turned him into something not quite human But why is their concern at once so urgent and so trivial David Hawtrey decadent and hedonistic militiaman has dangerous plans for the house But are they truly his own Rebecca Champhert is Booth s biographer David s ex lover and Jane s unwilling victim And it s up to her to unravel the story of Heartsease a story that takes in the history of Britain the gap between life and death and the future of the human race

The Postnational Fantasy Masood Ashraf Raja,Jason W. Ellis,Swaralipi Nandi,2014-01-10 In twelve critical and interdisciplinary essays this text examines the relationship between the fantastic in novels movies and video games and real world debates about nationalism globalization and cosmopolitanism Topics covered include science fiction and postcolonialism issues of ethnicity nation and transnational discourse Altogether these essays chart a new discursive space where postcolonial theory and science fiction and fantasy studies work cooperatively to expand our understanding of the fantastic while simultaneously expanding the scope of postcolonial discussions

How NOT to Get Published Claire Gillman,2013-09-27 There are many brilliant books out there which have not been published because their author has not been able to successfully navigate the minefield that is finding a publisher In many cases authors make basic mistakes in their submissions which ensure that they do not even get read by the correct person Even if they do reach someone with decision making power they often fail to clearly explain the proposition of their book or the target market Claire Gilman is the perfect person to help you find a publisher for your manuscript She has done it successfully having had twenty of her own books published She has spoken to many commissioning editors and agents about what they look for and look to avoid in a submission And she has worked as a literary consultant helping all sorts of authors to improve their proposals Now she combines all this wisdom into one book explaining clearly 50 common mistakes which authors make and how you can avoid them and ensure that your work receives the attention and the publisher that it deserves

Language and Bilingual Cognition Reader in Applied Linguistics Vivian Cook,Vivian Cook,Benedetta

Bassetti,2011-04-27 This volume provides a state of the art overview of the relationship between language and cognition with a focus on bilinguals bringing together contributions from international leading figures in various disciplines It is essential reading for researchers and postgraduate students with an interest in language and cognition or in bilingualism and second languages Complete Critical Assembly David Langford,2002-10-01 This new collection of essays commissioned from a range of scholars across the world takes as its theme the reception of Rome's greatest poet in a time of profound cultural change Amid the rise of Christianity the changing status of the city of Rome and the emergence of new governing classes Vergil remained a bedrock of Roman education and identity This volume considers the different ways in which Vergil was read understood and appropriated by poets commentators Church fathers orators and historians The introduction outlines the cultural and historical contexts Twelve chapters dedicated to individual writers or genres and the contributors make use of a wide range of approaches from contemporary reception theory An epilogue concludes the volume Brave new words Jeff Prucher, More Things in Heaven John Brunner,2011-09-29 A revised version of THE ASTRONAUTS MUST NOT LAND 1963 It isn't every day that the impossible happens But when it does and you're a witness you have to start looking for answers The authorities won't talk So you decide to find out for yourself That's what Drummond did And when he found out it changed the universe The Language of the Night Ursula K. Le Guin,2024-05-14 Featuring a new introduction by Ken Liu this revised edition of Ursula K Le Guin's first full length collection of essays covers her background as a writer and educator on fantasy and science fiction on writing and on the future of literary science fiction We like to think we live in daylight but half the world is always dark and fantasy like poetry speaks the language of the night Ursula K Le Guin Le Guin's sharp and witty voice is on full display in this collection of twenty four essays revised by the author a decade after its initial publication in 1979 The collection covers a wide range of topics and Le Guin's origins as a writer her advocacy for science fiction and fantasy as mediums for true literary exploration the writing of her own major works such as A Wizard of Earthsea and The Left Hand of Darkness and her role as a public intellectual and educator The book and each thematic section are brilliantly introduced and contextualized by Susan Wood a professor at the University of British Columbia and a literary editor and feminist activist during the 1960s and 70s A fascinating intimate look into the exceptional mind of Le Guin whose insights remain as relevant and resonant today as when they were first published The Culture of "The Culture" Joseph S. Norman,2021-01-05 In a career that spanned over thirty years Iain M Banks became one of the best loved and most prolific writers in Britain with his space opera series concerned with the pan galactic utopian civilisation known as the Culture widely regarded as his most significant contribution to science fiction The Culture of The Culture focuses solely on this series providing a comprehensive thematic analysis of Banks's Culture stories from Consider Phlebas to The Hydrogen Sonata It explores the development of Banks's political philosophical and literary thought arguing that the Culture offers both an image of a harmonious civilisation modelled on an alternative socialist form of globalisation and a critique of our neo liberal present As Joseph Norman explains the Culture is the result of an ongoing utopian process attempting through the application of technoscience to move beyond obstacles to progress such as imperialism capitalism the human condition religious dogma patriarchy and crises in artistic representation The Culture of The Culture defines Banks's creation as culture a utopian way of doing of being of seeing an approach an attitude and a lifestyle that has enabled and is evolving alongside utopia rather than an image of a static end state Khatru Symposium: Women in Science Fiction Jeanne Gomoll, 2009-08-31 Originally published and edited by Jeffrey D Smith in 1975 Khatru 3 4's symposium on women in science fiction was a detailed conversation among some of the most well known authors of 70s feminist science fiction including Suzy McKee Charnas Samuel R Delany Vonda N McIntyre Joanna Russ James Tiptree Jr before her true identity of Alice B Sheldon was known Kate Wilhelm Chelsea Quinn Yarbro and others The opinions expressed by participants are still radical today This 1993 update of the symposium includes new material by some of the original participants and commentary by others including Pat Murphy Karen Joy Fowler Gwyneth Jones and Jeanne Gomoll Cover by Judith M Weiss illustrations by Georgie Schnobrich

Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron, R. Reginald, Robert Reginald, 2009-11 Science Fiction Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time This was the golden era of SF publishing with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field by amateur critics and by litt rateurs and University professors Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed nowhere else before or since The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art The Best Science Fiction and Fantasy of the Year Jonathan Strahan, 2011-03-01 Strahan's fifth anthology contains 29 wide ranging tales Neil Gaiman's The Truth Is a Cave in the Black Mountains is a deceptively simple folktale styled story of the price one may pay for gold The Sultan of the Clouds by Geoffrey Landis untangles a complex knot of childish power Sarah Rees Brennan's The Spy Who Never Grew Up gives a beloved childhood icon a sinister update Diana Peterfreund's The Care and Feeding of Your Baby Killer Unicorn turns unicorn lore on its head and Rachel Swirsky's The Lady Who Plucked Red Flowers Beneath the Queen's Window puts a fantasy spin on the temporal culture shock of immortality This year the fantasy tales outdo the SF in depth of storytelling and characterization though all the inclusions are strong with few ideas left by the wayside The Listener
