A Gendered Profession James Benedict Brown, Harriet Harriss, Ruth Morrow, James Soane, 2019-08-16 The issue of gender inequality in architecture has been part of the profession's discourse for many years yet the continuing gender imbalance in architectural education and practice remains a difficult subject This book seeks to change that It provides the first ever attempt to move the debate about gender in architecture beyond the tradition of gender segregated diagnostic or critical discourse on the debate towards something more propositional actionable and transformative To do this A Gendered Profession brings together a comprehensive array of essays from a wide variety of experts in architectural education and practice touching on issues such as LGBT age family status and gender biased awards

Space Feminisms Marie-Pier Boucher, Claire Webb, Annick Bureau, Nahum, 2024-01-25 Employing a global approach to feminist theory this book examines how scientific popular scholarly and artistic imaginations of space have since the 1950s reflected and embedded Earthly hopes anxieties and futures Rather than simply a platform for imagining the future it cultivates radical and alternative modes of inquiry around space through seeing space as a material reality that reflexively encodes humans self perceptions of their planet and beyond Bringing together essayistic reflections artworks and interviews with space scientists engineers and astronauts past and present in one volume Space Feminisms inspects the transformation of terrestrially held notions of gender race class and ableism as they migrate to the extraterrestrial whilst drawing new connections between feminist thought and extraterrestrial power structures Space Feminisms makes a radical enquiry into how earthly power structures are already expanding into our skies facilitating a collaborative and interdisciplinary platform for scholars artists and designers to imagine radical constructions of human futures beyond Earth At the intersection of scientific cultural social and artistic speculations the book gathers leading scholars scientists artists and designers to develop innovative tactics and disruptive participations to create generative alternative and radical futures of and in space
