Sometimes There Were Heroes:

Sometimes There Were Heroes Douglas C. Jones, 2005-09-30 Arkansas native Douglas C Jones 1924 1998 ranks right up there with Larry McMurtry A B Guthrie and Ron Hansen Author of nineteen historical Westerns including The Court Martial of George Armstrong Custer which was made into a Hallmark Hall of Fame movie Arrest Sitting Bull and Elkhorn Tavern Jones was a three time recipient of the Golden Spur Award and in 1993 he received the Owen Wister Award for Lifetime Contribution and Achievement from the Western Writers of America His final novel Sometimes there Were Heroes originally published in 2000 and now in paperback is the riveting tale of the brave and driven men and women of early Texas told against the color backdrop of Bexar the tiny Spanish mission that would later become San Antonio As witnessed through the unforgettable characters of the Mexican Gringo Paco Salazar a German immigrant named Sophie and the young Oscar Schiller this history is made rich with intrigue danger murder and love as disparate cultures clash and bond on the American frontier Tonkawa Indians and Bavarian settlers Mexicans and Texicans Comanches and Angelos all mingle memorably in this riveting drama Here are Sam Houston and Santa Ana the Alamo the founding of the Republic of Texas the Texas Rangers the forty Niner Gold Rush and the Civil War all seamlessly woven into a suspenseful and colorful tale The author s own pencil and charcoal drawings further enliven the novel From prologue to epilogue this is a suspenseful book that will be hard to put aside until it is finished

Sea-Power and Other Studies Cyprian Sir Bridge, 2022-09-16 Cyprian Sir Bridge s Sea Power and Other Studies delves into the intricate world of naval power and its impact on global politics Through a series of essays and scholarly discussions Bridge explores the role of sea power in shaping empires trade routes and warfare throughout history His meticulous research and analytical approach provide readers with a comprehensive understanding of the significance of naval supremacy in international relations Bridge s writing style is characterized by its clarity and depth making complex naval concepts accessible to a wide audience Placing the book in the context of maritime literature Sea Power and Other Studies stands out as a valuable contribution to the study of naval history and strategy Cyprian Sir Bridge a renowned maritime historian and former naval officer brings a wealth of personal experience and expertise to his writing His unique perspective offers readers a nuanced and well informed view of sea power dynamics I highly recommend Sea Power and Other Studies to anyone interested in naval history military strategy or international politics

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia s coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in African itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth

Leaving for Detroit Roger Cockreham, 2013-02 Leaving for Detroit is a three part novella that takes place in the years 1937 1943 and 1952 The stories are about sexual promiscuity loyalty to friends and ideological differences But in every case there is a common thread that binds the stories together They are stories of survival and the choices that the characters make in order to ensure that survival or the loss of everything the death of someone Death is a common theme throughout the book in all the stories from The Oasis in 1934 to The Letter in 2008 The final act in life is death which takes on many different faces in these stories from the loss of an unborn child to suicide and to murder and it is invariably caused by the choices people make at different times in their lives Some characters are the victims of someone else's choice though it can be argued that the hand of death itself is a victim These are stories of ordinary people making choices that may be ordinary or in some cases extraordinary Circumstances occur that allow people to live a long life but in almost every circumstance there is a choice to be made And in every choice there lies the ever present specter of death

A Dream Realized Mike Bright, 2004

Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty R. Ferrell, Nessa Coyle, Judith A. Paice, 2015 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing is the definitive text on nursing care of the seriously ill and dying It is a comprehensive work addressing all aspects of palliative care including physical psychological social and spiritual needs The text is written by leaders in the field and includes an impressive section on international palliative care Each chapter includes case examples and a strong evidence base to support the highest quality of care The book is rich with tables and figures offering practical resources for clinical practice across all settings of care and encompassing all ages from pediatrics to geriatrics The Dark Stuff Donald S. Murray, 2018-04-05 An evocative social history of Europe's peatlands moors bogs and heaths Donald S Murray spent much of his childhood either playing or working on the moor chasing sheep across empty acres and cutting and gathering peat for fuel The Dark Stuff is an examination of how this landscape affected him and others Donald explores his early life on the Isle of Lewis together with the experiences of those who lived near moors much further afield from the Highlands and Islands of Scotland to the Netherlands Germany Ireland and even Australia Examining this environment in all its roles and guises Donald reflects on the ways that for centuries humans have represented the moor in literature art and folktale and he reveals how in some countries these habitats remain an essential aspect of their industrial heritage and working life today On his journey Donald confronts the unexpected how Europe's peatlands are part of the dark heart of that continent playing a crucial role in the history of crime and punishment in several countries He also examines our current perception of moorland asking how for the sake perhaps of our planet's survival we can learn to love a landscape we have all too often in our history denigrated feared and despised Stop Blaming Adam and Eve John P. Foley, 2018-01-31 This book is about humanity and the realization that instead of a right to life rather we receive the gift of life Every gift involves a giver and a recipient Who or what is the giver As recipient I can either accept or reject the gift What does that mean Am I a blip in the evolutionary process or am I a creature burdened or blessed with a purpose in life And what does that mean Reformation and Rebellion 1485-1750 Steve Arman, Simon Bird, Malcolm Wilkinson, 2002 The only KS3 History series for high ability students A War of Their Own Jerry Buss, 1998 It was more than ironic that the Kruegerbrothers Ennis Frank Leslie and Louie chose to defend their pacifist beliefs during WWI with guns blazing The aftermath of a dramatic shootout in Withee Wisconsin left two men dead and several wounded as well as an ugly legacy of government intervention gone awry Writing First with Readings Laurie G. Kirsznier, Stephen R. Mandell, 2011-12-28 Best selling authors and veteran college writing instructors Laurie Kirsznier and Stephen Mandell believe that students learn to write best when they use their own writing as a starting point In Writing First with Readings Practice in Context designed for the paragraph to essay course Kirsznier and Mandell take seriously the ideas and expressive abilities of developmental students as well as their need to learn the rules of writing and grammar Visual writing prompts that open every chapter get students writing immediately By moving frequently between their own writing writing models and instruction and workbook style mastery exercises students get constant reinforcement of the skills they are learning Thoughtful chapters on college success research and critical reading along with high interest essays round out the text making it the perfect introduction to college writing Read the preface Sea-Power and Other Studies Admiral Sir Cyprian Bridge, 2020-09-28 The Hero in the Mirror Sue Grand, 2011-05-20 Sue Grand offers a phenomenology of terror through a look at war genocide terrorism torture and familial abuse and queries the conditions through which an individual or group retains its humanity through acts of rescue resistance and memorial activity The Puritan , 1900 Let's Make World War II the Last World War Donald

Johnson,2023-04-07 The purpose of this book is to let the people mostly the young people of today who think they re living in hard times and that everything around them is so brutal and savage and of so much despair though many think that way because of to the constant negative ambush they receive today from the media schools newspapers and through many elites in our society who are taught that everything around them is going to hell in a handbasket know that this is the best time in the world to be alive Most people are safer better educated and living around modern high tech advances that make their lives easier People have more wealth and leisure time than ever before They are healthier and tend to live longer than ever before The world is also more acceptable among the races and religions of the world and this generation has the chance to live in everlasting peace without no World Wars though there will always be conflicts among people and nations and it will never be perfect This generation today must know that the world was a pretty savage doggy world throughout history climaxed by World War II though savage wars did continue after World War II They must also be taught that the perpetrators of the savagery were all people races and religions not just some For today s media want to use that narrative and the victims of the savagery were also from all people races and religions We all know that slavery is wrong in America but it ended over 160 years ago Why not also talk about slavery before American slavery like the slavery in Africa And why not talk right now about slavery that s been going on right now in China in North Africa by Isis and in Libya Because it doesn t get the media s narrative on who is good and who is bad And one more thing about the media how about talking about some of the good things that America has done throughout its history instead of bashing America all the time For example if America were to be wiped out by a tidal wave the rest of the world would be in warfare because there will be no America to secure peace

Loss Adjuster John Detheridge,2012-11-07 John Taylor is a loss adjuster returning to his home town after an absence of thirteen years to investigate a suspicious fire which has destroyed the business belonging to his childhood foe Hunter Stokes His return stirs up memories of his own loss the drowning of his younger brother twenty years earlier in the fast flowing Run where the harbour water is squeezed out to sea It is the incident that has defined his life with many holding him responsible for his brother s death As the fire investigation unfolds the adjuster compromises his professional independence he asks questions at the office of the local newspaper knowing that Hunter s friend the editor will be reporting back to him He interviews the claimant s mother and ex wife to increase the pressure Hunter is under before the initial fire investigation report has even been produced The reason becomes clear when he tells Hunter s mother that her son bullied him when they were children This is personal Hunter s employees and allies are also dragged into the investigation as old antagonism is rekindled and the extent of the violence perpetrated against Taylor is laid bare As the pressure of the investigation mounts on Hunter the truth about the cause of the fire is overshadowed by a more shocking revelation After Freedom Mary
