Sensational Flower Crafts Esther Davis, 1999 Rebetiko Worlds Dafni Tragaki, 2009-01-14 Rebetiko Worlds invites the reader to share the experience of rebetiko music making in the city of Thessaloniki today It aims at representing an ethnographic world made of diverse realities united by the melancholic sounds of rebetiko songs Rather than a musicological account on rebetiko music this ethnography is about the human encounters happening in certain rebetiko venues of the Ano Poli area in Thessaloniki How do people perceive practice feel and imagine rebetiko song a music tradition coming from the beginning of the 20th century today What are the worldviews embodied and inspired in the context of the ongoing rebetiko performances And how may the exploration of rebetiko revivalist culture convey understandings of broader music cultural orientations defining contemporary Greek society This ethnography is primarily interested in knowing contemporary rebetiko culture as a lived experience It captures instances of the life worlds of the people involved in the rebetiko revival which unravel the ways local traditions are re defined in the context of the nostalgic re invention of ethnic music in postcolonial times On this level the representation of the discourses and aesthetics associated with rebetiko performances today instigate further interpretations of local cultural trends the visions of our future triggered by the mythicized representations of our past Beyond a window to the rebetiko worlds of today this book recounts the story of an ethnographer engaged in fieldwork at home It aims at communicating the dynamics of reflexivity shaping the ethnographic self by proposing an understanding of the fieldwork experience as a special ontology In this way it reveals the various dilemmas moments of enthusiasm and moments of despair lived in the process of research in an attempt to illuminate the poetics of the subjective cultural knowledge Rebetiko Worlds incites the reader to share the poetics of ethnographic fiction and interpretation and through this the gradual making of the ethnomusicologist in the field A Catalogue of Manuscripts in Lambeth Palace Library, Mss. 2341-3119 (excluding Mss. 2690-2750) Lambeth Palace Library, Edward Geoffrey Watson Bill, 1983 Guide to Photographic Collections at the Smithsonian Institution: National Museum of American History Smithsonian Institution, 1989 Register of the Shedd Family Association , 1928 The Historic Record & AV Collector Quarterly , 1992 Includes separate unnumbered section Historic record sales section The Best of Free Spirit Free Spirit, Free Spirit Publishing Staff, 1995 A treasury of tips strategies how tos hints insights facts revelations and laughs about growing up making choices solving life s problems getting along with others and getting to know oneself Includes hundreds of articles essays stories and cartoons by psychologists teachers counselors authors and other experts on kids including kids themselves Humour in Asian Cultures Jessica Milner Davis, 2022-06-30 This innovative book traces the impact of tradition on modern humour across several Asian countries and their cultures Using examples from Japan Korea Indonesia and Chinese cultures in Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan the contributors explore the different cultural rules for creating and sharing humour Humour can be a powerful lubricant when correctly interpreted mis interpreted it is likely to cause considerable setbacks Over time it has emerged and submerged in different periods and different forms in all these countries but today s conventions still reflect traditional attitudes to and assumptions about what is appropriate in creating and using humour Under close examination Milner Davis and her colleagues show how forms and conventions that differ from those in the west can also be seen to possess elements in common With examples including Mencian and other classical texts Balinese traditional verbal humour Korean and Taiwanese workplace humour Japanese laughter ceremonies performances and cartoons as well as contemporary Chinese language films and videos they engage with a wide range of forms and traditions This fascinating collection of studies will be of great interest to students and scholars of many Asian cultures and also to those with a broader interest in humour studies It highlights the increasing importance of understanding a wider range of cultural values in the present era of globalized communication and the importance of reliable studies of why and how cultures that are geographically related differ in their traditional uses of and assumptions about humour Canadian Periodical Index , 1965 Wallace's Farm and Dairy , 1909 Next Year in Marienbad Mirjam Zadoff, 2012-10-29 From the last decades of the nineteenth century through the late 1930s the West Bohemian spa towns of Carlsbad Franzensbad and Marienbad were fashionable destinations for visitors wishing to take a cure to drink the waters bathe in the mud be treated by the latest X ray light or gas therapies or simply enjoy the respite afforded by elegant parks and comfortable lodgings. These were sociable and urbane places, settings for celebrity sightings, match making and stylish promenading. Originally the haunt of aristocrats, the spa towns came to be the favored summer resorts for the emerging bourgeoisie. Among the many who traveled there, a very high proportion were Jewish. In Next Year in Marienbad, Mirjam Zadoff writes the social and cultural history of Carlsbad, Franzensbad, and Marienbad as Jewish spaces. Secular and religious Jews from diverse national, cultural, and social backgrounds mingled in idyllic and often apolitical-seeming surroundings. During the season, shops sold Yiddish and Hebrew newspapers, kosher kitchens were opened, and theatrical presentations, concerts, and public readings catered to the Jewish clientele. Yet these same resorts were situated in a region of growing hostile nationalisms, and they were towns that might turn virulently anti-Semitic in the off-season. Next Year in Marienbad draws from memoirs, letters, newspapers, and maps, novels, and postcards to create a compelling and engaging portrait of Jewish presence and cultural production in the years between the fin de siècle and the Second World War. — Love and Terror in the Third Reich, Peter Matheson, Heinke Sommer-Matheson, 2021-01-01. What was it like to fall in love in Hitler's Germany? As the war tore them apart, how did young couples keep love vibrant, care for their children, and relate to the war? The earthy letters of Ernst and Lilo Sommer depict in unforgettable poignancy the collision of their personal dreams with the political and military realities of the Third Reich. They provide a vivid window into the lives of ordinary people in the midst of horrific conflict. Seventy years later, their daughter Heinke reflects on this tragedy, while Peter Matheson provides a historical perspective. The encounter between past and present generations provides glimpses of a bygone age and raises urgent questions for the future. — Stand To!, 2003.

Euro-Visions Mariana Liz, 2016-09-22. European cinema not only occupies a dominant place in film history; it is also a field that has been raising more interest with the expanding work on the transnational. Euro Visions asks what idea of Europe emerges, is represented, and constructed by contemporary European film. Adopting a broad and wide-ranging approach, Euro Visions mixes political sources, historical documents, and filmic texts and offers an integration of policy and economic contexts with textual analysis. Mariana Liz examines costume dramas, biopics, and war films, mainstream co-productions, and tales of Fortress Europe by renowned auteurs, showing how films from different European nations depict and contribute to the formation of the idea of Europe. Case studies include Girl with a Pearl Earring, La Vie en Rose, Black Book, Good Bye Lenin, Match Point, and The Silence of Lorna. — Catalog of Copyright Entries, Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1957.
