The Dilemmas Of Donal Hickey:

The Dilemmas of Donal Hickey Jeanette Murphy, 2000 When young naive Donal Hickey is forced to leave his native Ireland in the late fifties due to the recession he is oblivious to the adventures that lie just beyond his narrow horizons Moving in with his generous brother Michael near Blackpool he begins his first job every new experience carrying with it a lesson and more likely than not a hilarious escapade before he finds himself unemployed once again Unable to face the prospect of returning home without work he joins the RAF and finds friendship with Mervyn a young Welsh lad with a nose for trouble that is almost as sensitive as Donal

The Logic of Force Christopher M. Gacek, 1994 This study examines the disparities between the two dominant American political military approaches to the use of force as an instrument of foreign policy The first approach argues that if force is employed it should be used at whatever level necessary to achieve decisive military objectives The second approach argues that certain limits to the use of force may be necessary and acceptable Case studies illustrate how the basic disagreements between the two approaches influence policy making and military decisions Included in the text is discussion of Vietnam Panama the Gulf War Somalia and the former Yugoslavia

English/British Naval History to 1815 Eugene L. Rasor, 2004-10-30 The English British have always been known as the sailor race with hearts of oak the Royal Navy as the Senior Service and First Line of Defense It facilitated the motto The sun never set on the British Empire The Royal Navy has exerted a powerful influence on Great Britain its Empire Europe and ultimately the world This superior annotated bibliography supplies entries that explore the influence of the English British Navy through its history This survey will provide a major reference guide for students and scholars at all levels It incorporates evaluative qualitative and critical analysis processes the essence of historical scholarship Each one of the 4 124 annotated entries is evaluated assessed analyzed integrated and incorporated into the historiographical scholarship

Patriotic Fire Winston Groom, 2007-05-08 December 1814 its economy in tatters its capital city of Washington D C burnt to the ground a young America was again at war with the militarily superior English crown With an enormous enemy armada approaching New Orleans two unlikely allies teamed up to repel the British in one of the greatest battles ever fought in North America The defense of New Orleans fell to the backwoods general Andrew Jackson who joined the raffish French pirate Jean Laffite to command a ramshackle army made of free blacks Creole aristocrats Choctaw Indians gunboat sailors and militiamen Together these leaders and their scruffy crew turned back a British force more than twice their number Offering an enthralling narrative and outsized characters Patriotic Fire is a vibrant recounting of the plots and strategies that made Jackson a national hero and gave the nascent republic a much needed victory and surge of pride and patriotism

The Seaforth Bibliography Eugene Rasor, 2009-04-17 This remarkable work is a comprehensive historiographical and bibliographical survey of the most important scholarly and printed materials about the naval and maritime history of England and Great Britain from the earliest times to 1815 More than 4 000 popular standard and official histories important articles in journals and periodicals anthologies conference symposium and seminar papers guides documents and doctoral theses are covered so that the emphasis is the broadest possible But the work is far far more than a listing The works are all evaluated assessed and analysed and then integrated into an historical narrative that makes the book a hugely useful reference work for student scholar and enthusiast alike It is divided into twenty one chapters which cover resource centres significant naval writers pre eminent and general histories the chronological periods from Julius Caesar through the Vikings Tudors and Stuarts to Nelson and Bligh major naval personalities warships piracy strategy and tactics exploration discovery and navigation archaeology and even naval fiction Quite simply no one with an interest and enthusiasm for naval history can afford to be without this book at their side Why are We Deaf to the Cry of the Earth? Sean McDonagh,2001 Human beings and the natural world are on a collision course Sean McDonagh argues for a new urgency to halt environmental degradation and where possible heal the earth The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2001

Nanoethics Donal P. O'Mathuna,2010-06-01 Nanotechnology manipulates matter at the atomic level It leads to innovative processes and products that are revolutionizing many areas of modern life Huge amounts of public funds are being invested in the science yet the public has little understanding of the technology or its ethical implications Indeed the ethical social and political dimensions of nanotechnology are only beginning to receive the attention they require outside of science fiction contexts Surveillance devices may become so small that they are practically invisible to the naked eye raising concerns about privacy Nanomedicine may lead to the development of new diagnostic and therapeutic devices yet anxieties have been raised about the impact of nanobots circulating in our bodies Military applications or misuses of nanotechnology raise other concerns This book explores in an accessible and informative way how nanotechnology is likely to impact the lives of ordinary people in the coming years and why ethical reflection on nanotechnology is needed now Current Law Index ,1994 The Social Life of Water John R. Wagner,2013-08-01 Everywhere in the world communities and nations organize themselves in relation to water We divert water from rivers lakes and aquifers to our homes workplaces irrigation canals and hydro generating stations We use it for bathing swimming recreation and it functions as a symbol of purity in ritual performances In order to facilitate and manage our relationship with water we develop institutions technologies and cultural practices entirely devoted to its appropriation and distribution and through these institutions we construct relations of class gender ethnicity and nationality Relying on first hand ethnographic research the contributors to this volume examine the social life of water in diverse settings and explore the impacts of commodification urbanization and technology on the availability and quality of water supplies Each case study speaks to a local set of issues but the overall perspective is global with representation from all continents
