Powers, 2002-09-30

Focusing on the Maghrib in the period between 1300 and 1500 in this 2002 book David Powers analyses the application of Islamic law through the role of the mufti To unravel the sophistication of the law he considers six cases which took place in the Marinid period on subjects as diverse as paternity fornication water rights family endowments the slander of the Prophet and disinheritance The source for these disputes are fatwas issued by the muftis which the author uses to situate each case in its historical context and to interpret the principles of Islamic law In so doing he demonstrates that contrary to popular stereotypes muftis were in fact dedicated to reasoned argument and sensitive to the manner in which law society and culture interacted The book represents a groundbreaking approach to a complex field It will be read by students of Islamic law and those interested in traditional Muslim societies Sharī'a Wael B. Hallaq,2009-04-16 Wael Hallaq s magisterial overview of Shari a examines the doctrines and practices of Islamic law from the seventh century to the present In a compelling narrative the author unravels the complexities of his subject to reveal a deep knowledge of the law which will engage and challenge both student and scholar Religious Freedom and Religious Pluralism in Africa Pieter Coertzen,M Christian Green,Len Hansen,2016-05-22 Africa continues to be a region with strong commitments to religious freedom and religious pluralism These however are rarely mere facts on the ground they are legal political social and theological projects that require considerable effort to realise This volume compiling the proceedings of the third annual conference of the African Consortium for Law and Religion Studies focuses on various issues which vastly effect the understanding of religious pluralism in Africa These include amongst others religious freedom as a human right the importance of managing religious pluralism and the permissibility of religious practice and observance in South African public schools Maimonidean Studies ,2008 A Sea of Debt Fahad Ahmad Bishara,2017-03-10 An innovative legal history of economic life in the Western Indian Ocean charting the emergence of a trans oceanic contractual culture Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law Eugene Cotran,Martin Lau,2009
