The Diving Eagle:

The Diving Eagle P. W. Stahl, 1984-01-01 Muunokhoi's Awakening Gilbert Arthur, 2025-01-10 Muunokhoi's eyes open just a crack he stretches his limbs as he awakens from his slumber The tarbagan marmot peers around the hibernaculum and sees his family sleeping peacefully but something doesn't feel quite right He is surprisingly very alert and does not feel as drowsy as he usually does after waking up from hibernation in the spring He inspects the family more closely and notices none of them have lost any appreciable weight and neither has he This can only mean one thing Winter is far from over but he is most definitely awake He tries unsuccessfully to induce hibernation Muunokhoi emerges from his burrow into a hostile winter environment to explore the availability of food He first encounters an eagle owl who advises him that with no food available in the winter months his only option for survival is to embark on a quest to lower elevations where he can find food to sustain him until the spring The journey will be fraught with danger from predators that stalk the mountainous Mongolian terrain but the marmot will surely starve to death if he stays put Summoning all his courage Muunokhoi sets out on an adventure that could ultimately save his life or end it The New Sporting Magazine ,1833

The Eagle Watchers Ruth Tingay, Todd Katzner, 2011-01-15 Eagles have fascinated humans for millennia For some the glimpse of a distant eagle instantly becomes a treasured lifelong memory Others may never encounter a wild eagle in their lifetime This book was written by people who have dedicated years to the study of eagles to provide an insider's view for all readers but especially those who have never been up close and personal with these magnificent yet often misunderstood creatures In their stories twenty nine leading eagle researchers share their remarkable field experiences providing personal narratives that don't feature in their scientific publications They tell of their fear at being stalked by grizzly bears their surprise at being followed by the secret police their embarrassment when accidentally firing mortar rockets over a school gymnasium and their sense of awe at tracking eagles via satellite The reader experiences the cultural shock of being guest of honor at a circumcision ceremony the absurdity of sharing an aquatic car with the Khmer Rouge and the sense of foreboding at being press ganged into a frenzied tribal death march through the jungle The Eagle Watchers covers twenty four species on six continents from well known bald eagle golden eagle to obscure black and chestnut eagle New Guinea harpy eagle and from common African fish eagle to critically endangered Philippine eagle Madagascar fish eagle The diverse experiences vividly described in this book reveal the passion dedication and sense of adventure shared by those who study these majestic birds and strive for their conservation Featuring stunning color photographs of the eagles information on raptor conservation a global list of all eagle species with ranges and conservation status and a color map of the sites visited in the book The Eagle Watchers will appeal to birders conservationists and adventure travelers alike To further support the conservation programs described in this book all royalties are being donated to two leading nonprofit organizations for raptor conservation training and fieldwork Hawk Mountain Sanctuary Intern Program and the National Birds of Prey Trust Birds and Beasts of Imagining the Human Condition in Medieval Rome Kristin B. Aavitsland, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on the Vita Humana cycle at Tre Fontane this book includes an overview of the medieval history of the Roman Cistercian abbey and its architecture as well as a consideration of the political and cultural standing of the abbey both within Papal Rome and within the Cistercian order Furthermore it considers the commission of the fresco cycle the circumstances of its making and its position within the art historical context of the Roman Duecento Examining the unusual blend of images in the Vita Humana cycle this study offers a more nuanced picture of the iconographic repertoire of medieval art Since the discovery of the frescoes in the 1960s the iconographic programme of the cycle has remained mysterious and an adequate analysis of the Vita Humana cycle as a whole has so far been lacking Kristin B Aavitsland covers this gap in the scholarship on Roman art circa 1300 and also presents the first interpretative discussion of the frescoes that is up to date with the architectural investigations undertaken in the monastery around 2000 Aavitsland proposes a rationale behind the conception of the fresco cycle thereby providing a key for understanding its iconography and shedding new light on thirteenth century Cistercian culture The Eagle Magazine, 1926
