The Dog On The Tuckerbox Its Story:

John Marsden John Noell Moore,2010-10-28 A master storyteller John Marsden is Australia's best known writer for young adults Marsden first found success with the publication of So Much To Tell You Since then he has gone on to publish many popular and well recognized titles including those in the Tomorrow Series and The Ellie Chronicles In his books Marsden explores adolescents caught in a world of opposites of innocence and guilt idealism and realism and joy and despair Marsden's world view and his faith in adolescents serve as the backdrop for John Noell Moore's critical readings of Marsden's major novels In John Marsden Darkness Shadow and Light Moore investigates the full spectrum of Marsden's work beginning with the author's life as a teacher and writer Throughout the book Moore weaves together Marsden's recurring themes chief among them writing and storytelling as ways of constructing identity in the transition from childhood to adulthood and the ability of young adults to endure hardships and overcome seemingly insurmountable odds The book is a valuable addition to the current scholarship on young adult literature and will be welcomed by middle and high school English teachers and students alike

Moments in Time Jim Davidson,2016-08-01 Postcards provide a much richer source of imagery than most of us ever imagined An extraordinary range has been printed in Australia particularly in the golden period between 1900 and the First World War After an introduction to set the scene Moments in Time covers postcards of just about everything war and peace disasters and celebrations holidays and home life sports and theatre rural and city living love for The Dear Old Country and pride in Australia to name a few Postcards were a major form of communication for a century Although few people send them now old postcards have an immediacy about them that is striking They become projectiles for the past particularly when augmented by a message that gives a glimpse of another life another time
