Our House in the Clouds Judy

Blankenship,2013-04-04 While many baby boomers are downsizing to a simpler retirement lifestyle photographer and writer

Judy Blankenship and her husband Michael Jenkins took a more challenging leap in deciding to build a house on the side of a mountain in southern Ecuador. They now live half the year in Cañar, an indigenous community they came to know in the early nineties when Blankenship taught photography there. They are the only extranjeros outsiders in this homely chilly town at 10,000 feet where every afternoon a spectacular mass of clouds rolls up from the river valley below and envelopes the town. In this absorbing memoir Blankenship tells the interwoven stories of building their house in the clouds and strengthening their ties to the community. Although she and Michael had spent considerable time in Cañar before deciding to move there, they still had much to learn about local customs as they navigated the process of building a house with traditional materials using a local architect and craftspeople. Likewise fulfilling their obligations as neighbors in a community based on reciprocity presented its own challenges and rewards. Blankenship writes vividly of the rituals of births, baptisms, marriages, festival days, and deaths that counterpoint her and Michael's solitary pursuits of reading, writing, listening to opera, playing chess, and cooking. Their story will appeal to anyone contemplating a second life as well as those seeking a deeper understanding of daily life in the developing world.

The Doll's House Natasha Boydell, 2025-01-13

The BRAND NEW psychological thriller from Natasha Boydell. She lives in my old home, she looks like me, she dresses like me. And now she wants my life. Naomi is devastated when the sale of the apartment falls through, her dreams of moving to an amazing forever home nearby with her family are momentarily dashed. But then a sweet-natured single mother named Summer appears, announcing her intention to buy Naomi's old apartment. And all of a sudden it looks like Naomi might get her new house after all. At first it feels like Summer's saved her life. But as soon as the sale goes through, Summer starts turning up at Naomi's new house. She's enrolled her child in Naomi's daughter's class. She's dressing like Naomi. She's suddenly best friends with all her friends. And then Naomi discovers she's got a pretty little doll's house. One that looks just like Naomi's new home. Naomi wants to believe she's just imagining things. What could Summer possibly want? And how far will she go to take everything that Naomi has?
