The Chinese Jasper Becker,2002-02-25 In The Chinese Jasper Becker China s premier western correspondent strips the country of its myths and captures the Chinese as they really live For nearly two decades Becker has lived in China and reported from areas where most visitors do not reach Here he is at his most candid reporting from all over the country from tiny crowded homes in the swollen cities of the southeast rim to a vast secret network of thousands of defense bunkers in the northwest He exposes Chinese society in all of its layers from remote illiterate peasants to the rising classes of businessmen to local despots the twenty grades of Party apparatchicks to the dominant comparatively small caste of Party leaders who are often ignorant of the people they rule Becker lets the Chinese speak for themselves in voices that are rich and moving He teaches a great deal about the magnitude and the false face of China s vaunted economic boom and further shows the pervasive institutionalized crime that has risen out of economic poverty In all Becker reveals a China very different than our long held assumptions depict The Chinese is the hidden story of people of the world s largest nation a nation so poorly understood and so vital to the future
