The Early Film Criticism Of Francois Truffaut:

The Early Film Criticism of François Truffaut François Truffaut, Wheeler W. Dixon, 1993 Before turning to filmmaking François Truffaut was a film critic writing for Cahiers du Cinéma during the 1950s The Early Film Criticism of François Truffaut makes available for the first time in English articles that originally appeared in French journals such as Cahiers du Cinéma and Arts Truffaut discusses films by such acknowledged masters as Hitchcock Huston Dmytryk and Lang but also examines the work of such lesser known directors as Robert Wise Don Weis and Roger Vadim Early Film Criticism of Francois Truffaut Wheeler Winston Dixon, 1993-02-22 Before turning to filmmaking Francois Truffaut was a film critic writing for Cahiers du Cinema during the 1950s The Early film Criticism of Francois Truffaut makes available for the first time in English articles that originally appeared in French journals such as Cahiers du Cinema and Arts Truffaut discusses films by such acknowledged masters as Hitchcock Huston Dmytryk and Lang but also examines the work of such lesser known directors as Robert Wise Don Weis and Roger Vadim A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume

The Films in My Life Francois Truffaut, 1994-01-01

The Films In My Life François Truffaut, 1994-08-22 Fran ois

Truffaut 1932 1984 perhaps the most respected member of the New Wave group of French moviemakers left a legacy of beloved and influential films that include The 400 Blows Jules and Jim Stolen Kisses Day for Night and The Story of Adele H Equally fascinating is the very large body of film criticism Truffaut wrote over many years for Cahiers du Cinema and other leading film journals Wonderfully varied personal and informal these reviews all communicate unabashed love for and an enormous excitement about the movies The Films in My Life is Truffaut's own selection of more than one hundred essays that range widely over the history of film and pay tribute to Truffaut's particular heroes among them Hitchcock Welles Chaplin Renoir Cocteau Bergman and Bu uel

The ABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert Beverley Ray, 2008 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They're things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate How would we go about finding those things What method would enable us to retrieve them and by doing so to understand better how Hollywood films got made The ABCs of Classic Hollywood attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930 1945 period when the American Studio System reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in St Louis To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued Film Studies Ray works with the movies details treated as initially mysterious but promising clues e.g. Grand Hotel's coffin and room assignments The Philadelphia Story's diving board and license plate PA55 The Maltese Falcon's clocks and missing bed Meet Me in St Louis's violinist and ribboned cat By producing at least 26 entries for each of these films one for every letter of the alphabet Ray demonstrates that a movie's details contain the record of the work and ideas that produced them the endless negotiation between commercial efficiency and seductive enchantment In our unconscious memories we recognize something in the movies something tantalizing and just out of reach This book unlocks those memories making them conscious and explicit so that they will help us understand the most powerful and important storytelling system ever designed

Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis

The French Film Musical Phil Powrie, Marie Cadalanu, 2020-09-17 Like many national cinemas the French cinema has a rich tradition of film musicals beginning with the advent of sound to the present This is the first book to chart the development of the French film musical The French film musical is remarkable for its breadth and variety since the 1930s although it flirts with the Hollywood musical in the 1930s and again in the 1950s it has very distinctive forms rooted in the traditions of French chanson Defining it broadly as films attracting audiences principally because of musical performances often by well-known singers Phil Powrie and Marie Cadalanu show how the genre absorbs two very different traditions with the advent of sound European operetta and French chanson inflected by American jazz 1930 1950 As the genre matures operetta develops into big budget spectacles with popular tenors and revue films also showcase major singers in this period 1940 1960 Both sub genres collapse with the advent of rock n roll leading to a period of experimentation during the New Wave 1960 1990 The contemporary period since 1995 renews the genre returning nostalgically both to the genre s origins in the 1930s and to the musicals of Jacques Demy but also hybridising with other genres such as the biopic and the documentary

Re-Viewing British Cinema, 1900-1992 Wheeler Winston Dixon, 1994-07-01 Re Viewing British Cinema 1900 1992 is a collection of essays on British cinema history and practice It offers both the casual reader and the film scholar a different view of British filmmaking during the past century Arranged in chronological order the book explores those areas of British cinema that have not been fully examined in other works and also offers fresh interpretations of a number of classic films From the work of Frederic Villiers the pioneering British newsreel cameraman who at the turn of the century brought home images of battlefield carnage to essays on the British B film and the long forgotten Independent Frame method of film production to new readings of classics such as The Red Shoes Passport to Pimlico and Peeping Tom the authors offer a look behind the scenes of the British film industry and engage the reader in some of the most compelling interpretational and historical issues of recent film history and critical theory In addition the volume contains a number of interviews with such key directors as Stephen Frears Terence Davies Wendy Toye and Lindsay Anderson and also pays particular attention to the work of early twentieth century British feminist filmmakers whose films have often been ignored by conventional film theory and history It also offers new material on the British film noir the English horror film and the pioneering gay director Brian Desmond Hurst Taken as a whole this book presents an entirely new series of viewpoints on British film practice theory and reception and affords a fresh and vibrant view of the British film medium

Directed by Allen Smithee Jeremy Braddock, Stephen Hock, 2001 Allen Smithee specializes in the mediocre He is versatile He is prolific And he doesn t exist From 1969 until 1999 Allen Smithee was the pseudonym adopted by Hollywood directors when they wished not to be associated with films ostensibly of their making Encompassing over fifty films of various stripes B movies sequels music videos made for TV movies Smithee s three decades of work affords the authors of this volume a unique opportunity to reassess the claims of auteurism both in its traditional guise and in the more commodified form it currently assumes Sometimes treating Smithee as an auteur in much the same way critics and scholars have treated directors as diverse as Douglas Sirk Abbas Kiarostami and Quentin Tarantino the contributors reclaim new possibilities for auteurist filmmaking and film studies even as they show what an empty display it has recently become In accounting for this change the essays in this volume employ innovative theories of authorship to recapture the subversive effect that auteurism once enjoyed Thus the Smithee name becomes part of a larger discussion of the economics and history of pseudonyms in filmmaking notably in the blacklist of the 1950s as well as an opportunity to employ Jacques Derrida s theory of the signature to recover obscured economic and historic contexts within Smithee's films Unique in its focus innovative in its approach Directed by Allen Smithee argues that it is precisely through throwaway films such as Smithee's that recent Hollywood cinema can best be studied
