understand daily life in spiritual terms Almost all the women whose works appear in these volumes would have been considered religious radicals by their contemporaries Living through the turbulent times of the English Revolution 1642 1660 it is unsurprising that their life writings are marked by a sense of persecution Many of them spent time in prison Katherine Evans Sarah Cheevers and Barbara Blaugdane were all imprisoned for preaching the faith of The Society of Friends while Mary Rowlandson spent several months as a captive of North American Indians In her introduction to these writings Elizabeth Skerpan Wheeler provides brief biographical sketches of these writers together with details of the publication history of each text With the exception of Rowlandson s works the writings in these volumes are the first complete unabridged editions in modern times Defences of Women Susan Gushee O'Malley,1996 The early modern Englishwoman : a facsimile library of essential works.
