book Wettstein brings the non specialist into the conversation especially in early chapters he also reconceives the debate in a way that avoids technical formulation The Magic Prism is intended for professional philosophers graduate students and upper division undergraduates Western Movie References in American Literature Henryk Hoffmann,2012-10-19

so explosive it disappeared from print for over a quarter century A film so dangerous half its cast and crew met their demise bringing eccentric billionaire Howard Hughes final cinematic vision to life Starring All American legend John Wayne in full Fu Manchu make up as Mongol madman Genghis Khan Featuring sultry seductress Susan Hayward as his lover This is the true story of The Conqueror 1956 the worst movie ever made Filmed during the dark underbelly of the 1950s the Cold War when nuclear testing in desolate southwestern landscapes was a must for survival the very same landscapes were where exotic stories set in faraway lands could be made Just 153 miles from the St George Utah set nuclear bombs were detonated regularly at Yucca Flat and Frenchman Flat in Nevada providing a bizarre and possibly deadly background to an already surreal moment in cinema history This book tells the full story of the making of The Conqueror its ignominious aftermath and the radiation induced cancer that may have killed John Wayne and many others Leading with the Chin Brad Congdon, 2018-01-01 Leading with the Chin focuses on the Esquire writings of James Baldwin Truman Capote Raymond Carver Don DeLillo Norman Mailer and Tim O'Brien to examine how these authors negotiated important shifts in American masculinity Using the works of these six authors as case studies Leading with the Chin argues that Esquire permitted writers to confront national fantasies of American masculinity as they were impacted by the rise of neoliberalism civil rights and gay rights and the cultural dominance of the professional managerial class Applying the methodologies of periodical studies and the theoretical concerns of masculinity studies this book recontextualizes the prose and fiction of these authors by analyzing them in the material context of the magazine Relating each author's articulation of masculinity to the advertisements editorials and articles published in each issue Leading with the Chin shows that Esquire reflected and helped to shape the forces that structured American masculinity in the twentieth century
