The On The Living God:

The Living God R. T. France, 2003-02 This book is not an academic study of what the church has taught or what scholars have said but rather a challenging study of what the Bible itself says about God In The Living God author R T France encourages us to come to grips with the broad sweep of biblical data showing us that the God of the Bible is neither passive nor far removed from our everyday lives but rather a dynamic and living reality to be engaged Back cover The Living God Thomas C. IV Wright, Francis Martin, 2019-01-22 This work gives a philosophical and theological account of the belief that Scripture enables people to encounter the life giving reality of God The authors examine the biblical foundations for this belief as given in a variety of witnesses from both Testaments and explain the philosophical and theological underpinnings of Christian exegesis The book sums up and makes accessible the teaching of revered senior scholar and teacher Francis Martin and is aimed squarely at students assuming no advanced training in philosophy or theology It includes a foreword by Robert Sokolowski Man. Temple of the Living God Roberto Pla, Our one and only real purpose in writing this work has been to awaken love for the whole Christ and when we speak of the whole Christ we are referring both to the Christ who died for mankind in Jerusalem more than two thousand years ago love for whom has been encouraged by manifest exegesis since the beginning of the Christian era and at the same time to the Christ preexisting and eternal Although both are one and the same being if we speak of the whole Christ we cannot disregard the inseparable Christ who from the beginning has lain forgotten unknown crucified within every man and who is only waiting to reveal his immortal divine presence invoked by love and faith Then the true beatitude of his resurrection will arise in every man Pag 38 The purpose of this work is to awaken in some men awareness that the canonical New Testament texts express a dual hermeneutic and exegesis makes it possible once one has assimilated a first reading which we shall call manifest to undertake a second reading one that will be more difficult to apprehend in order to find through it a new meaning which the Christian hagiographers called hidden or secret Pag 28 Children of the the Living God Chinedum Walters Ogbuka, 2023-10-10 God created man in His own image with dominion and authority over all His creation both living and non living things both plants and animals When Satan deceived the first man and woman to sin against God they lost their glory and dominion and inherited a fallen nature of death from the first man Adam God begin to form a people that will inherit a risen nature different from the nature inherited from Adam This new nature will lead to eternal life Beginning from the covenant God made with Abraham Isaac and Jacob God formed a special people for Himself according to His divine plan and purpose for humanity The descendants of Abraham are born from the seed of God they are the heritage of God according to the promise Adam and Eve lost their birthright fellowship and inheritance as God s children because they chose to listen to the devil instead of obeying God Sin made them imperfect and rebellious against God with the ultimate consequences of death To be reconciled with God man needs a new birth to be born again not of the flesh which is dead before God but of the Spirit of God God s power in a human s life can transform a natural man into a supernatural man from human to divine from being born of the flesh to being born of the spirit God has given us a chance to live again and be fruitful Whatsoever is dead in our life and body can live again there is restoration in the life and glory of everyone who believes in God this is the heritage of all the children of God The children of God have the divine nature of God and have been raised in heavenly places to overcome the powers and principles on earth The Living God and the Fullness of Life Jürgen Moltmann, 2015-11-06

Modern humanity has accepted a truncated impoverished definition of life Focusing solely on material realities we have forgotten that joy purpose and meaning come from a life that is both immersed in the temporal and alive to the transcendent We have in other words ceased to live in God In this book renowned theologian Jürgen Moltmann shows us what that life of joy and purpose looks like Describing how we came to live in a world devoid of the ultimate he charts a way back to an intimate connection with the biblical God He counsels that we adopt a theology of life an orientation that sees God at work in both the mundane and the extraordinary and that pushes us to work for a world that fully reflects the life of its Creator Moltmann offers a telling critique of the shallow values of consumerist society and provides a compelling rationale for why spiritual sensibilities and encounter with God must lie at the heart of any life that seeks to be authentically human
