history of horse and man for readers of The Invention of Nature and The Soul of an Octopus Horses and humans share an ancient profoundly complex relationship Once our most indispensable companions horses were for millennia essential in helping build our cities farms and industries But during the twentieth century in an increasingly mechanized society they began to disappear from human history In this esoteric and rich tribute award winning historian Ulrich Raulff chronicles the dramatic story of this most spectacular creature thoroughly examining how they've been muses and brothers in arms neglected and sacrificed in war yet memorialized in paintings sculpture and novels and ultimately marginalized on racetracks and in pony clubs Elegiac and absorbing Farewell to the Horse paints a stunning panorama of a world shaped by hooves and the imprint left on humankind A beautiful and thoughtful exploration Farewell to the Horse is a grown up but also lyrical and creative history book and I very much enjoyed it James Rebanks author of the New York Times bestseller The Shepherd's Life

Chinese History and Literature J. Prusek, 1970-12-31 The studies contained in this volume arose over the last thirty years Originally the range of the materials I intended to include in my selection was very much wider Publishing difficulties however have obliged me to curtail them to something less than half the planned content At first I intended to include all the studies I supposed might be of interest to readers and represent contributions still of some significance for research in this domain of Oriental scholarship When the necessity arose to limit the contents I gave preference to the standpoint of thematic completeness rather than to what would be of interest to the general reader Thus in this volume I have confined myself to two thematic fields only Old Chinese literature and studies dealing with mediaeval storytellers' productions Hua Pen I have excluded the whole complex of historical studies and all studies relating to the new literature I am now preparing on the principal historical theme on which I was engaged already in the period of my studies in Prague under Prof J Bidlo and then in 1928 till 1930 with Prof B Karlgren in Sweden and Prof G Haloun in Halle in Germany a more compendious study in which I hope to sum up the results of my research and I also intend to publish a volume of selected studies dealing with the New Chinese literature at some later date A History of Nursery Rhymes Percy B.
