W. Bloomfield,2017-02-21 Baby SEALs Part 2 is the second in a series that follows the lives of two children Jeff and Danielle who meet when they are six years old and decide they are brother and sister Their further adventures now as twelve year olds begin immediately with a shark attack in the Gulf of Mexico This leads to their next big project Danielle now lives with her second set of foster parents while Jeff still lives with his mother They are back and active in the church They continue to practice and add to their SEAL skills A new sister is added how many can Jeff take Jeff is still writing music Danielle is using her art in a new way Some days both are just trying to stay alive Gods plan is still playing out God in the Act of Reference Erica Appelros,2017-03-02 To claim to believe in God without accepting that God exists independently of human minds would mean reducing God to merely a human construct thus not real enough for being the object of religious worship This book sets out to challenge this common view on existence and religious belief Arguing from concrete examples of language use in children s make believe play and other ordinary situations Erica Appelros suggests that what makes us consider something to be real involves our capacities to relate to our surroundings not only on grounds of their physical characteristics but also on grounds of human construction This book makes a substantial contribution to the contemporary debate within philosophy of religion on religious realism and non realism and suggests innovative and constructive solutions to the perennial philosophical and religious issue of what is meant by talking about God and God s existence Baby Seals Part 4 J.W. Bloomfield,2018-02-05 Baby SEALs Part 4 continues Jeff and Danielles adventures as they and their friends prepare to dig water wells in two African villages Preparations proceed smoothly but unexpected events lead to shocking results Jeff and Danielle have their faith tested and their inner convictions challenged when their earthly physical training comes into conflict with their spiritual growth Emotional
