The Other Person's Shoes Hank Beebe,1992 Fiction Unbound Sebnem Toplu,2011-07-12 This book covers all Bernardine Evaristo s major works Lara 1997 and Lara 2009 The Emperor s Babe Soul Tourists Blonde Roots and Hello Mum Each chapter focuses on a particular novel combining a close analysis of the author s technique with a penetrating understanding of the basic themes which underlie all of Evaristo s work This monograph exposes that Evaristo is not simply interested in multicultural issues to label them as such is to overlook her achievement as a novelist It shows instead how Evaristo combines apparently disparate elements for example historical research with late twentieth century allusions in a narrative such as The Emperor s Babe to show how African Caribbeans have been coming to Britain for thousands of years Yet Evaristo is not just interested in the African Caribbean experience this book shows how she tries to question those basic concepts for example Englishness or patriotism which lie at the heart of mainstream white culture in contemporary Britain It argues that Evaristo is interested in alternative constructions not only of nationalism but of other basic issues such as race gender and class Her books give the chance for hitherto marginalized characters slaves women or victims of a patriarchal world to tell their stories and postulate alternative views of the world they live in Above all this monograph shows how Evaristo refuses to be pigeon holed she is not simply a black British writer but someone who focuses on the interconnectedness of society This book calls for readers to adopt a more enlightened approach not only to issues of culture and identity but to the work of Evaristo as a whole Yarmarok IřUřriř Klynovyř,1987 Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print, 1996 R R Bowker Publishing,1996 Plays for Children Kate Oglebay,Drama League of America.
