The Dilemmas Of Africanization Choices And Dangers For Subsaharan Africa:

The Dilemmas of Africanization L. Dalton Casto, 1998 The author analyses the various Africanization policies of replacing non citizen businesses with African Citizen business ownership Topics cover the Africanization struggles in Ghana Kenya Mozambique Anti Apartheid the African National Congress and South African Homelands L Dalton Casto s many years of work and travel in Africa helping people cope with post independent government experiments have contributed to an original intriguing analysis of Africa s policies and politics successes and failures Law and Ecology Richard O. Brooks, Ross Jones, 2017-07-05 In 1970 Earth Day was first celebrated marking the dawn of worldwide environmental consciousness and the passing of many environmental laws In part these events were the result of the maturing of the science of ecology which recognized the interdependence of the web and cycles of nature This volume explores the relationship between ecology and environmental law beginning with a description of the two very different disciplines This description is followed by a history of their episodic interactions the early period of origin the mid century formative period from 1950 to 1970 the initial serious period of interaction after Earth Day in 1970 and the testing of the relationship during the next two decades Utilizing a number of case studies examinations of the key linkage persons legal instruments and the migration of ecological concepts and frameworks this book analyzes the final flowering of an ecosystem regime which embraces the connections between the two disciplines of ecology and environmental law Concluding with an inventory of the problems posed by the relationship between the two disciplines and an agenda for future research this clearly structured comprehensive and stringent book is an essential resource for all serious scholars and students of ecology and environmental law Drumming up Dialogue Patrick Wanakuta Baraza, 2011-07-25 If as they say we all come out of Africa then somewhere in Kenyas Rift Valley we first learned to live as human beings and we quickly learned to quarrel too Migration patterns within Kenya are as complicated as any in the U S or Europe and its multi ethnic history is much much longer Fr Baraza knows both the brightness of human progress in a peaceful countryside as well as the shadows left by war and fighting He writes about how to resolve conflicts and difficulties by people who have had long life experience Drumming Up Dialogue applies the thinking of three leading writers in the field of conflict management to the Bukusu community of Kenya philosopher Martin Buber political scientist Fred Charles Ikl and cultural anthropologist William Ury These three theorists address the creating of peace between individuals between opposing factions and between countries and cultures Drumming is a traditional Bukusu way of communication Fr Baraza uses the drum as a metaphor for the different ways dialogue can be used and interpreted Baraza presents one of the very few studies of culture of the Bukusu people and the only one to address dialogue through their religions Based upon the personal experiences and Barazas ongoing contact with his Bukusu people Drumming Up Dialogue seeks to awaken us to the cultural values of the Bukusu and offer an alternative way to conflict resolution Hilary Martin PhD Graduate Theological Union Berkeley CA Fordham environmental law journal ,2002 Black Caucus of
