Gordon A. Craig, Francis L.
Loewenheim

The Diplomats:

The Diplomats, 1919-1939 Gordon A. Craig, Felix Gilbert, 2021-05-11 This classic account of interwar diplomacy examines the curious fate of the diplomat the honest man sent to lie abroad for the good of his country in the capitals of a darkening Europe These men ambassadors in the field and officials in the Foreign Office worked against time in a world that witnessed the complete reorganization of the European system amid the onslaught of totalitarianism Leading experts investigate the diplomatic history of these years through the eyes of those entrusted with the extraordinarily delicate task of conducting the fateful negotiations that effect national policy Drawing on government archives European memoirs and diplomatic studies this book is both an absorbing history of twenty years of crisis and a searching analysis of the role of diplomacy in the modern age

The Diplomats, 1939-1979 Gordon A. Craig, Francis L. Loewenheim, 2019-01-15 This volume offers a unique perspective on a turbulent and dangerous age by focusing on the activities and accomplishments of its diplomats Its twenty three interconnected essays discuss the politics of ambassadors foreign ministers and heads of state from Acheson and Adenauer to Sadat and Gromyko as well as the special problems of the professionals in the foreign offices and the role of the media in modern diplomacy Among its contributors are such distinguished international scholars as Akira Iriye Michael Brecher Stanley Hoffmann W W Rostow and Norman Stone Expanding the field of inquiry covered by its acclaimed predecessor The Diplomats 1919-1939 which concentrated on Europe and the coming of the Second World War these essays showcase the major diplomatic practitioners of the period against the broader background of the problems and crises that confronted them among others the Polish question at the end of World War II the onset of the Cold War the defeat of EDC in 1954 the Suez crisis Khrushchev's Berlin note in 1958 the Middle East War of 1967 and the oil shock of 1973 the Iranian revolution and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan This account of the pendular swing from crisis and detente and back again is given a global perspective by careful treatment of the diplomacy of new nations like India Communist China and Israel and the transformation of the Middle East and Japan Among the new perspectives offered here are Geoffrey Warner's critical view of Ernest Bevin's attitude toward the United States John Lewis Gaddis's judgment of Henry Kissinger's detente policy W W Rostow's analysis of the diplomatic method of Paul Monnet Rena Fonseca's assessment of Nehru's policy of nonalignment Shu Guang Zhang's fresh look at the relationship between Zhou Enlai and Mao and Paul Gordon Lauren's critique of U N crisis management from Trygve Lie to Perez de Cuellar Highly original also are Steven Miner's portrait of Molotov Michael Brecher's pioneering study of the diplomacy of Abba Eban and James McAdams's analysis of German Ostpolitik Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 At Home with the Diplomats Iver B. Neumann, 2012-08-15 The 2010 WikiLeaks release of 250 000 U S diplomatic cables has made it eminently clear that there is a vast gulf between the public face of diplomacy and the opinions and actions that take place behind embassy doors In At Home with the Diplomats Iver B Neumann offers unprecedented access to the inner workings of a foreign ministry Neumann worked for several years at the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs where he had an up close view of how diplomats conduct their business and how they perceive their own practices In this book he shows us how diplomacy is conducted on a day to day basis Approaching contemporary diplomacy from an anthropological perspective Neumann examines the various aspects of diplomatic work and practice including immunity permanent representation diplomatic sociability accreditation and issues of gender equality Neumann shows that the diplomat working abroad and the diplomat at home are engaged in two different modes of knowledge production Diplomats in the field focus primarily on gathering and processing information In contrast the diplomat based in his or her home capital is caught up in the seemingly endless production of texts reports speeches position papers and the like Neumann leaves the reader with a keen sense of the practices of diplomacy relations with foreign ministries mediating between other people s positions while integrating personal and professional into a cohesive whole adherence to compulsory routines and agendas and above all the generation of knowledge Yet even as they come to master such quotidian tasks diplomats are regularly called upon to do exceptional things such as negotiating peace
