

Dear Neighbours,

I hope this letter finds you well.

I am sorry to be having to write this letter to you, but I do know it comes across as a kind request. A few of the neighbours around Hardman Avenue, St Paul's Street and Lee Street have been discussing the barking of your dog and it is annoying to a few of us.

We understand that dogs will bark but some neighbours feel it is a little noisy and a little uncomfortable that the dogs are allowed outside to do so from here which is annoying neighbours as the barking is echoing throughout the neighbouring streets.

You have some neighbours who are Police, Nurses and other shift workers who have just finished a night shift and are trying to get some sleep at this time of the early morning. We also have two elderly care homes nearby to which this is causing some residents to become distressed due to be woken in the early morning.

We would like to kindly request that you consider taking the dogs for a walk at this time of the morning if you are already up and about. There are numerous parks within walking distance that dogs are allowed, and this could resolve the issue and concerns that some of your fellow neighbours have around the matter.

I am writing this letter on behalf of the neighbours from the mentioned streets, and we were advised by the RSPCA to make a complaint to the local council, but we don't wish to do this, so instead writing this letter to hopefully resolve the matter.

I would like to add that this letter is going to two neighbours, one on Hardman Ave and one on Lee Street. The dog on Lee Street is left outside for sometimes over 12 hours a day, barking consistently which is heard by the two care homes, right up to the top of Hardman Avenue. Neighbours have attempted to make contact by visiting your home on numerous occasions to discuss the matter, to no avail. To help this is concerning neighbours due to the time the animal is left alone, sometimes still being after 11pm. We do hope this letter of concern is taken seriously and you can find a solution for your fellow neighbours.

Kind Regards,

The Dog Addressed Address
