The Theology of the Gospel of Luke Joel B. Green, 1995-04-20 The Gospel of Luke often mined for information about the life of Jesus is also one of the earliest Christian examples of narrative theology Unlike some writers of New Testament books Luke has engaged in the theological task by shaping a narrative representation of the coming and mission of Jesus. In doing so he goes to great lengths to ground the work of Jesus in the continuing story of God's redemptive plan especially witnessed in the Scriptures and he also emphasises the ongoing character of that story with the result that Luke's audience is challenged to discern the purpose of God in order that they may embrace it and order their lives around it. This exploration of the way in which Luke accomplishes his theological task in the first century is both informative and illuminating for contemporary readers seeking approaches to cultural criticism and constructive theology today.

These recently discovered handwritten documents are now being meticulously transcribed and prepared for publication What makes these 100 year old studies unique is the straightforward grammatical viewpoint taken by Rev Peters towards interpretation that the language of the Bible does not require spiritualization or mysticism to be understood that such unjustified additions actually confuse and mislead the reader The application of these practical Rules of Interpretation as seen in the recently published Testimony of Jesus and Testimony of John gives the Gospel of Luke a clear fresh new voice given from the viewpoint of an contemporary Man who was neither an Apostle or Disciple of the Lord during his earthly ministry The Rev Peters clearly exposes the simple interconnected design of the book a testimony to the true identity of Jesus as the covenanted and predicted Messiah The Study focuses ONLY on the unique accounts of Luke not contained in the other three Gospels Every instance in each chapter of Luke s testimony confronts the reader with this most important distinction By the end of Luke s testimony the evidence is so overwhelming the distinctions so clear that only one realization remains the reason Luke wrote the book in the first place that All of the past present future Biblical prophecies are to be fulfilled in the person of this Messiah ONLY the Messiah has the God given authority and supernatural power to succeed in these appointed tasks and most importantly that Jesus and the Messiah are one and the same person In the plainest manner possible then Luke spreads within the grasp of the reader the heart and soul of the Bible the past and future hopes of mankind in this one simple truth Luke like Jesus would ask Believest thou this
