each other. Featuring articles from leading figures in the field such as Yolanda Moses Winnie Lem Carmen Rial Miriam Grossi and Cristina Amescua the volume covers topics as diverse as the mobility of Brazilian football players toilets in South Africa trade unions in Nepal and South Africa peace building in southern Thailand museological approaches in China the Great East Japan earthquake and tsunami immigration and race in the United States and many more Edited by John Gledhill the text offers a much needed insight into the way in which anthropology is developing worldwide and makes a tremendous contribution to the discussion of world anthropologies An important timely work for students and researchers Thriving in the Knowledge Age John H. Falk, Beverly K. Sheppard, 2006-04-06 In Thriving in the Knowledge Age John Falk and Beverly Sheppard argue that museums require a radically new business model to survive the transition into the knowledge age Only by shifting towards more personalized and community based learning experiences can museums reverse the declining attendance figures of the twenty first century Written to provide clear answers to fundamental questions about the purpose and goals of the museum of the future this visionary book is a must have for museum professionals and trustees Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander, Mary Alexander, 2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander's Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children's museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits
