The Oral Torah The Sacred Of Judaism An Introduction:

The Oral Torah Jacob Neusner, 1986 The Oral Torah Jacob Neusner, 1991-01-01 The Halakhah of the Oral Torah Jacob Neusner, 1997 The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10

The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis. It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds. In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon. At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications. Here Neusner has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations. Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre. Neusner then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel: the doctrines of economics, politics, and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively. Then come the two foci of discourse: Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology. Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester, England, and Mayer Gruber of Ben-Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised, and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California, Berkeley, has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents. Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis.

Collections, Codes, and Torah Michael LeFebvre, 2006-10-01

Scholars of biblical law are already widely agreed that ancient Israel did not draft law texts for legislative purposes. This study critiques and challenges the current consensus and presents an alternative hypothesis.

Uniting the Dual Torah Jacob Neusner, 1990-11-30

In this book Jacob Neusner analyzes the text of Sifra, a commentary on the book of Leviticus, arguing that Sifra should be understood as successfully relating the Mishnah, the authoritative writing down of the Oral Torah, to Jewish Scripture or the written Torah. Neusner shows how Sifra's authors adopted a mediating position between the written Torah and the Mishnah, reconstructing large tracts of the Mishnah according to the logic and program of the written Torah of Leviticus.

Scriptures of the Oral Torah Jacob Neusner, 1990 Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01

The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history, literature, and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves. Under this premise, Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place. How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said. Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions, Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult, often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 The last two decades have seen the emergence of a new field of academic study that examines the interaction between religion and ecology Theologians from every religious tradition have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature and acknowledged their own faiths complicity in the environmental crisis Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the books essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part one will explore traditional religious concepts of and attitudes towards nature and how these have been changed by the environmental crisis Part II looks at larger conceptual issues that transcend individual traditions Part III will examine religious participation in environmental politics The Pilgrimage Pattern in Exodus Mark S. Smith, 1997-06-01 Underlying Exodus in its priestly redaction is a pilgrimage Smith s new book starts by reviewing pilgrimage shrines feasts and practices in ancient Israel Next it examines the two pilgrimage journeys in Exodus In Exodus 1 15 Moses journeys to Mount Sinai experiences God and receives his commission In Exodus 16 40 Moses and the people together journey to Mount Sinai for the people s experience of God and their commission Between lies Exodus 15 the fulcrum point of the book vv 1 12 look back and vv 13 18 look forward to Israel s journey to Sinai Finally the different meanings of torah in the book of Exodus are contrasted and the book concludes with a consideration of Exodus s larger place in the Pentateuch Nomination of John Agresto United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs, 1987 The Real Messiah Stephan Huller, 2012-01-01 Highly controversial but impeccably researched The Real Messiah explodes the myth that Jesus was the long prophesied Messiah of the Jewish nation Indeed it argues that Jesus never claimed that role but thought of himself as herald to the true Messiah Marcus Julius Agrippa the last King of the Jews and Jesus contemporary It was he who truly founded what became known as Christianity and wanted to build a faith to which anyone could aspire Though Marcus Agrippa was initially successful with the passing of time those in charge of the new faith capitulated to the whims of successive Roman Emperors and centered their religion on Jesus instead Jewish Law from Jesus to the Mishnah E. P. Sanders, 2016-03-01 In this volume E P Sanders presents five studies that advance the re examination of the nature of Jewish law that he began in Jesus and Judaism Fortress Press 1985 As usual he is able to shed new light on old questions and demonstrate that many accepted interpretations are misguided A chapter on The Synoptic Jesus and the Law considers how serious the legal issues discussed between Jesus and his opponents would have been had they been authentic Two chapters explore whether the Pharisees had oral law and whether they ate ordinary food in purity

the thesis of Jacob Neusner A study of Jewish food and purity laws in the Greek speaking Diaspora bears on the particular point of law which led to the argument between Peter and Paul at Antioch At last Sanders turns to a pointed essay that sets his own approach to rabbinic traditions and the Mishnah in distinct contrast from that of Jacob Neusner A new preface points to the enduring contribution of these compelling and influential studies

Midrash as Literature Jacob Neusner,2003-04-16 The Talmudic Anthology in Three Volumes Jacob Neusner,1995 Canonization and Decanonization Toorn,A. van der Kooij,2018-11-13 This volume contains the papers read at the Leiden Conference on Canonization and Decanonization of 9 10 January 1997 The emphasis in this rich and wide ranging contribution to the subject is on the processes of canonization and decanonization in several religions and on the phenomenon of religious canons as well It has two sections De canonization and the History of Religions and De canonization and Modern Society In the first section processes out of which canons eventually emerge are highlighted in contributions devoted to particular religions viz African religions Judaism and Christianity Islam Buddhism and Zoroastrianism The articles of the second section are of particular relevance to the contemporary situation in the western world dealing with aspects such as forms of the survival of a canon in processes of modernization canonization and the challenge of plurality and canonization and hermeneutics The reader may benefit even more from this volume as it contains also An Annotated Bibliography on the subject

Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 Khiok-Khng Yeo,1995 An interdisciplinary study of 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 in terms of rhetorical and sociological approaches gives fascinating insight into Paul s rhetoric and theology Also the preliminary attempt to use rhetorical hermeneutic in cross cultural reading of the biblical text is innovative and provocative

The Reception and

Interpretation of the Bible in Late Antiquity Lorenzo DiTommaso, Lucian Turcescu, 2008-08-31 The volume is a Festschrift offered to Charles Kannengiesser on the occasion of his 80th birthday and honours him for his numerous scholarly accomplishments Its twenty five contributions discuss some of the major issues pertaining to the reception and interpretation of the Bible in late antique Christianity and Judaism They focus on the ways in which communities and individuals understood the Bible and interpreted its traditions to address their historical social and theological requirements Since the Bible was by far the most important book during these centuries a discussion of its influence in such contexts will illuminate significant aspects of the formation of western civilisation

The Tradition of the Elders T. Hoogsteen, 2014-09-16 The Tradition of the Elders based on Matt 15 1 20 and Mark 7 1 23 explores how the oral law upheld and promoted the anti Christian forces of Pharisaism and Sadduceism As such they appear repeatedly in the New Testament documents often as the law and the works of the law For example consider When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the law Rom 2 14 We ourselves who are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners yet who know that a man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Christ Jesus even we have believed in Christ Jesus in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law because by works of the law shall no one be justified Gal 2 15 16 Tell me you who desire to be under law do you not hear the law Gal 4 21 But which law do these legal references concern the Torah the oral law or the Decalogue This important distinction between the oral law and the Ten Commandments is what The Tradition of the Elders sets out to make clear All New Testament exegetes including teachers and students can benefit from an increased understanding of the enmity of the oral law against the Gospel
