Continental Women Writers Katharina M. Wilson, 1991 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Autobiographical Poetry in England and Spain, 1950-1980 Menotti Lerro, 2017-03-07 The volume traces the founding critical theories of the autobiographical genre from the Enlightenment period to the most recent developments which since the Sixties and the essays of Roy Pascal and Jean Starobinski have had a greater and greater influence It offers in contrast to the essential and by now classic definition of Philippe Lejeune an increased effectiveness of the poem to express the narrative purposes of autobiography recognizing poetic writing that has the extraordinary ability to say what the mortal language does not say to quote Leopardi The works of Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Carlos Barral and Jaime Gil de Biedma are analyzed here and show an unveiling of the self through memories places and objects that often characterize them and that allow to whomever recalls one s own experience through writing the recovery and restoration of essential meanings to the reconstruction not only of subjective identity but also of one s own community Spanish Poetry of the Twentieth Century Andrew Debicki, 2021-12-14 Twentieth century Spanish poetry has received comparatively little attention from critics writing in English Andrew Debicki now presents the first English language history published in the United States to examine the sweep of modern Spanish verse More important he is the first to situate Spanish poetry in the context of European modernity to trace its trajectory from the symbolists to the postmodernists Avoiding the rigid generational schemes and catalogs of names found in traditional Hispanic literary histories Debicki offers detailed discussions of salient books and texts to construct an original and compelling view of his subject He demonstrates that contemporary Spanish verse is rooted in the modern tradition and poetics that see the text as a unique embodiment of complex experiences He then traces the evolution of that tradition in the early decades of the century and its gradual disintegration from the 1950s to the present as Spanish poetry came to reflect features of the postmodern especially the poetics of text as process rather than as product By centering his study on major periods and examining within each the work of poets of different ages Debicki develops novel perspectives The late 1960s and early 1970s for example were not merely the setting for a new aestheticist generation but an era of exceptional creativity in which both established and new writers engendered a profound intertextual and often self referential lyricism This book will be essential reading for specialists in modern Spanish letters for advanced students and for readers interested in comparative literature Anthology of Catalan Lyric Poetry Joan Gili, 2022-09-23 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1953 The Poetry of Salvador Espriu D. Gareth Walters, 2006 Two standpoints govern the approach taken to the poetry of Salvador Espriu in this extended study of his work First the author explores the structural implications of symmetry and numerology in a chronological rather than thematic survey of the poetry a procedure that involves a consideration of how each book attains its distinctive character while having common preoccupations and stylistic traits Secondly he examines the tension implicit in Espriu's poetry between involvement and detachment or between the civic and the lyric The London Catalogue of Books Published in Great Britain, 1853 The London catalogue of books published in Great Britain, 1816 to 1851 [compiled by T.
