Social Control In A Free Society:

Social Control in a Free Society Robert E. Spiller, 2016-11-11 The 1958 Benjamin Franklin Lectures with contributions from Loren C Eiseley Carl G Hempel Gilbert Seldes George J Stigler and Willard Hurst Drug Control in a Free Society James B. Bakalar, Lester Grinspoon, 1988-04-29 This book offers a provocative analysis of controlling alcohol and drugs in industrial societies Social Problems in a Free Society Myles J. Kelleher, 2004-09-02 The future of the sociologist's profession is jeopardized by an ongoing trend toward the politicization of sociology and the radicalization of social problems This book calls for the rethinking of the culture of social political and economic liberty to create a resurgence of a sociological agenda Social Problems in a Free Society offers an original perspective on social problems such as violations of the principles of individual rights and the free market This book is a vision for reinvigorating the discipline in a fashion undreamt of within the wearisome strains of today's radical social problems theory Corporatism, Social Control, and Cultural Domination in Education: From the Radical Right to Globalization Joel Spring, 2012-11-27 Starting with the 1972 publication of his seminal work Education and the Rise of the Corporate State Joel Spring has been documenting and analyzing the politics of knowledge and education Throughout his work he has explored the attempts to use education to advance the economic and political interests of dominant groups The general term he uses for the relationship between schools and power is ideological management His scholarly work first looked at the influence on American schooling of business and economic doctrines embodied in human capital theories and consumerism The next step in his exploration of the politics of knowledge was to examine these issues in the context of globalization leading to a proposed educational rights amendment to national constitutions and a new paradigm for education both of which might ensure that schools are protected from ideological management by economic and political elites Spring's indigenous background has strongly shaped his interest in the political and economic goals of schooling particularly the attempts of those in power to use schools to destroy indigenous languages and cultures In this collection Spring brings together 10 of his key writings providing an overview not just of his own career but the larger contexts in which it is situated In the Introduction he reviews the evolution and scope of his work and his earlier arguments and reflects on its central themes which are reflected in the writings selected for this volume In the World Library of Educationalists international scholars themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands of their work and see their contribution to the development of a field as well as the development of the field itself Contributors to the series include Michael Apple James A Banks Stephen J Ball Elliot Eisner Howard Gardner John Gilbert Ivor F Goodson Peter Jarvis Political Discipline in a Free Society H. J. Blackham, 2013-04-15 This book traces the rise and fall of political philosophies since the 17th century The second part of the book shows how the general technique of cumulative learning from experience applies to social legislation and social services party politics to defence strategy and to the trends that follow the modern explosion of knowledge and capital The main argument is that social control is at its best a deliberate joint creation of and learning from social experience and in this sense political discipline although not the same as logical or scientific discipline is like them a submission to form not force The book gives a definite meaning to the idea of human progress and finds reason for a restoration of political hope and faith

Manufacturing Civil Society T. Brandsen, W. Trommel, B. Verschuere, 2014-05-07 Faced with falling social cohesion governments have sought to revitalise society by trying to reconstruct local communities civil society and citizenship As a result civil society is increasingly brought within the realm of public management subject to accountability and embedded in hierarchies the impact and origins of which this book explores

Surveillance, Closed Circuit Television and Social Control Clive Norris, Jade Moran, 2016-12-05 The rise of CCTV camera surveillance in Britain has been dramatic Practically every major city now boasts a CCTV system aimed at among other things preventing detecting and reducing the fear of crime Increasingly these developments are mirrored in villages shopping malls residential estates transport systems schools and hospitals throughout the country In short for the majority of citizens it is now impossible to avoid being monitored and recorded as we move through public space Surveillance CCTV and Social Control represents the first systematic attempt to account for this phenomenon It brings together leading researchers from the fields of anthropology criminology evaluation geography sociology and urban planning to explore the development impact and implications of CCTV surveillance Accordingly attention is directed to a number of key questions How does CCTV fit with the trends of late modernity Does CCTV reduce crime or merely shift it elsewhere How should CCTV be evaluated What is the significance of CCTV for women s safety How adequate is the regulation of CCTV In the light of recent technological developments what is the future of CCTV surveillance
