Social Life In Old New England:

Social life in old New Orleans Eliza Ripley,2023-12-13 Children should be seen and not heard Children were neither seen nor heard in the days of which I write the days of 1840 They led the simple life going and coming in their own unobtrusive way making no stir in fashionable circles with laces and flounces and feathered hats There were no ready made garments then for grown ups much less for children It was before California gold mines before the Mexican war before money was so abundant that we children could turn up our little noses at a picayune I recall the time when Alfred Munroe descended from Boston upon the mercantile world of New Orleans and opened on Camp Street a one price clothing store for men Nobody had ever heard of one price and no deviation for anything from a chicken to a plantation The fun of hectoring over price and feeling no matter how the trade ended you had a bargain after all was denied the customers of Mr Alfred Munroe The innovation was startling but Munroe retired with a fortune in course of time Social Life in Old New England Mary
