Social Relations And Social Exclusion Rethinking Political Economy:

Social Relations and Social Exclusion Peter Somerville, 2012-10-12 Examining the rational individual this book develops a new approach to the theory of social relations It explores how far we make sense of society on the assumption that people act as independent and free individuals exercising rational choice Re examining the family community workplace and state the author offers a thorough and original critique of the social policies of New Labour Local Partnership and Social Exclusion in the European Union John Benington, Mike Geddes, 2013-12-16 This book explores local partnership based initiatives to tackle European wide problems of poverty and social exclusion A major comparative study of the fast developing theme of social exclusion the contributors look at its causes effects and at the ways it might be combatted Based on in depth cross national research from areas across Europe it provides a uniquely authoritative account of the complexities of policy development in the EU and will be invaluable to researchers in European studies politics and economics The SAGE Handbook of Housing Studies David F Clapham, William A V Clark, Kenneth Gibb, 2012-04-20 Cross disciplinary and critical in its approach The SAGE Handbook of Housing Studies is an elucidating look at the key issues within the field It covers the study of housing retrospectively but also analyses the future directions of research and theory demonstrating how it can contribute to wider debates in the social sciences A comprehensive introductory chapter is followed by four parts offering complete coverage of the area Markets examines the perception of housing markets how they function in different contexts and the importance of housing behaviour and neighbourhoods Approaches looks at how other disciplines economics geography and sociology have informed the direction of housing studies Context traces the interactions between housing studies and other aspects of society providing context to debate housing through issues of space social welfare and the environment Policy is a multi disciplinary and comprehensive take on the major policy issues and the causes and possible solutions of housing problems such as regeneration and homelessness Edited by leading names in the field and including international contributions the book is a stimulating wide ranging read that will be an invaluable resource for academics and researchers in geography urban studies sociology social policy economics and politics Democratic Governance and Social Entrepreneurship Denise Marie Horn, 2013 Democratic Governance and Social Entrepreneurship addresses the intersection between emerging approaches to development microfinance microenterprise and social entrepreneurship It examines the ability of societies to generate their own public goods when the state is incapable of doing so These approaches to development have impacts on development and civil society building but do not necessarily amount to political empowerment per se they may add to the growth of civil society but not in the ways that advocates of democratization Legitimacy and Urban Governance Hubert Heinelt, David Sweeting, Panagiotis Getimis, 2006-05-17 A fresh examination of the relationship between two key issues in the on going debate on urban governance leadership and community involvement It explores the nature of the interaction between community involvement and political leadership in modern local governance by drawing on empirical data gathered from case studies concerning cities in England Germany Greece Italy the Netherlands New Zealand Norway Poland and Sweden It presents both a country specific and cross cutting analysis of the contributions that communities and leaders can make to more effective local governance These country specific chapters are complemented by thematic comparative chapters addressing alternative forms of community involvement types and styles of leadership multi level governance institutional restrictions and opportunities for leadership and involvement institutional conditions underpinning leadership and involvement and political culture in cities This up to date survey of trends and developments in local governance moves the debate forward by analysing modern governance with reference to theories related to institutional theory legitimation and the way urban leadership and community involvement compliment one another This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of politics and urban governance and to all those concerned with questions of local governance and democracy

The New and Changing Transatlanticism Laurie Buonanno,Natalia Cuglesan,Keith Henderson,2015-03-24 The European Union and the US are currently negotiating the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership TTIP with potentially enormous economic gains for both partners Experts from the European Union and the US explore not only the groundwork laid for TTIP under the New Transatlanticism but also the key variables economic cultural institutional and political shaping transatlantic policy outcomes Divided into four parts Part I consisting of three chapters contextualizes the transatlantic relationship with an historical survey contemporary foreign relations and policy and cultural dynamics Together these chapters provide the background for understanding the evolving nature of the EU US relationship Part II of this volume focuses on governance and comprises two chapters one on transatlantic governance and the other administrative culture Part III consists of six policy chapters competition trade transport mobility regimes financial services regulation and GMOs Part IV consisting of three chapters explores prospects and challenges associated with transatlanticism including the TTIP The last chapter concludes with lessons learned and future challenges with respect to policy convergence the nature of the EU US relationship power resources and bargaining within the transatlantic partnership and an assessment of the future of deeper cooperation and integration This insightful account into policy cooperation between the EU and the US is a welcomed resource for policy specialists oriented toward comparative public policy wishing to enter the arena of Transatlantic Studies

Promise, Pitfalls, and Potential of Social Entrepreneurship Sheila Cannon,Concepción Galdón,2024-04-08 This book dives into the heart of social entrepreneurship as the authors share the latest research global experiences authentic private conversations and diverse narratives around this widely popular concept The idea and practice of social entrepreneurship has swept the world taken up with enthusiasm by business leaders nonprofit practitioners and public policy makers alike In this book the authors argue that social entrepreneurship is surrounded by great promise and that this high expectation has contributed to its pitfalls setting it out as separate and different from other kinds of nonprofit organising public service provision and business for social benefit After exploring the problem of inflated expectations the authors rescue the concept from perfection overly positive normative judgements by presenting practical ways forward The book sets out how to really unleash the power of social entrepreneurship so that it can actually deliver on its promise to improve how we organise for social purpose This potential revolves around four key themes that are levers for social change innovative individuals social impact scaling social enterprises and the power of ecosystems Through these themes the book covers a wide range of approaches to social enterprise illustrated by specific examples and experiences from five continents This accessible book is a valuable resource for a variety of practitioners upper level students instructors and business scholars particularly those with an interest in social environmental impact entrepreneurship business ethics sustainable business ESG and CSR Urban Governance and Democracy Michael Haus, Hubert Heinelt, Murray Stewart, 2004-09-09 This book explores the relationship between leadership and community involvement and discovers how making these two elements more complementary one to the other can lead to more effective as well as legitimate policy outcomes The Politicization of the Civil Service in Comparative Perspective B. Guy Peters, Jon Pierre, 2004-08-02 This book addresses an important issue and debate in public administration the politicization of civil service systems and personnel Using a comparative framework the authors address issues such as compensation appointments made from outside the civil service system anonymity partisanship and systems used to handle appointees of prior administrations in the US Canada Germany France Britain New Zealand Belgium the Netherlands Spain and Greece Two Steps Forward David S. Cowan, Marsh, Alex, 2001-07-18 This book makes a distinctive contribution to the debate on housing policy Bringing together leading scholars from the fields of housing law and housing policy it engages with the central concerns of policy and demonstrates that the parallel debates of housing studies and socio legal studies can be strengthened by a fuller exchange of ideas
