Afrodescendants, Identity, and the Struggle for Development in the Americas Bernd Reiter, Kimberly Eison Simmons, 2012-04-01 Indigenous people and African descendants in Latin America and the Caribbean have long been affected by a social hierarchy established by elites through which some groups were racialized and others were normalized Far from being racial paradises populated by an amalgamated cosmic race of mulattos and mestizos Latin America and the Caribbean have long been sites of shifting exploitative strategies and ideologies ranging from scientific racism and eugenics to the more sophisticated official denial of racism and ethnic difference This book among the first to focus on African descendants in the region brings together diverse reflections from scholars activists and funding agency representatives working to end racism and promote human rights in the Americas By focusing on the ways racism inhibits agency among African descendants and the ways African descendant groups position themselves in order to overcome obstacles this interdisciplinary book provides a multi faceted analysis of one of the gravest contemporary problems in the Americas

Inequality in Latin America David M. De Ferranti, 2004-01-01 Latin America and the Caribbean has been one of the regions of the world with the greatest inequality This book explores why the region suffers from such persistent inequality identifies how it hampers development and suggests ways to achieve greater equity in the distribution of wealth incomes and opportunities The study draws on data from 20 countries based on household surveys covering 3 6 million people and reviews extensive economic sociological and political science studies on inequality in Latin America Four broad areas for action by governments and civil society groups to break the destructive pattern are outlined 1 build more open political and social institutions that allow the poor and historically subordinate groups to gain a greater share of agency voice and power in society 2 ensure that economic institutions and policies seek greater equity through sound macroeconomic management and equitable efficient crisis resolution institutions that avoid the large regressive redistributions that occur during crises and that allow for saving in good times to enhance access by the poor to social safety nets in bad times 3 increase access by the poor to high quality public services especially education health water and electricity as well as access to farmland and the rural services and protect and enforce the property rights of the urban poor 4 reform income transfer programmes so that they reach the poorest families
