Demanding Equality Joan Sangster, 2021-06-15 For one hundred years women fashioned different dreams of social transformation in their search for equality autonomy and dignity yet what is Canadian feminism Demanding Equality offers illustrations of feminist thought and organizing from mid nineteenth century Enlightenment inspired writing to the multi issue movement of the 1980s Broadening our definition of feminism and recognizing that its political cultural and social dimensions are entangled Joan Sangster explores the different pathways pursued to gain equality She challenges the popular wave theory concluding that feminist activism was continuous despite changing significantly across decades Demanding Equality presents a picture of a heterogeneous movement characterized by both alliances and fierce internal debates This comprehensive rear view look at feminism in all its political guises encourages a wider public conversation about what Canadian feminism has been is and should be

Misconceptions Lori Chambers,2007-09-22 In 1921 despite the passing of legislation intended to ease the consequences of illegitimacy for children Children of Unmarried Parents Act reformers in Ontario made no effort to improve the status of unwed mothers Furthermore the reforms that were passed served as models for legislation in other provinces and even in some American states institutionalizing in essence the prejudices evident throughout Until now historians have not sufficiently studied these measures resulting in the marginalization of unwed mothers as historical subjects In Misconceptions Lori Chambers seeks to redress this oversight By way of analysis and careful critique Chambers shows that the solutions to unwed pregnancy promoted in the reforms of 1921 were themselves based upon misconceptions The book also explores the experiences of unwed mothers who were subjected to the legislation of the time thus shedding an invaluable light on these formerly ignored subjects Ultimately Misconceptions argues that child welfare measures which simultaneously seek to rescue children and punish errant women will not and cannot succeed in alleviating child or maternal poverty
