Creole Identity in Postcolonial Indonesia Jacqueline

Knörr,2014-03 Contributing to identity formation in ethnically and religiously diverse postcolonial societies this book examines the role played by creole identity in Indonesia and in particular its capital Jakarta While on the one hand it facilitates transethnic integration and promotes a specifically postcolonial sense of common nationhood due to its heterogeneous origins creole groups of people are often perceived ambivalently in the wake of colonialism and its demise on the other In this book Jacqueline Knörr analyzes the social historical and political contexts of creoleness both at the grassroots and the State level showing how different sections of society engage with creole identity in order to promote collective identification transcending ethnic and religious boundaries as well as for reasons of self interest and ideological projects Colonialism and Male Domestic Service across the Asia Pacific Julia Martínez,Claire Lowrie,Frances

Steel,Victoria Haskins,2018-11-29 Examining the role of Asian and indigenous male servants across the Asia Pacific from the late 19th century to the 1930s this study shows how their ubiquitous presence in these purportedly humble jobs gave them a degree of cultural influence that has been largely overlooked in the literature on labour mobility in the age of empire With case studies from British Hong Kong Singapore Northern Australia Fiji and British Columbia French Indochina the American Philippines and the Dutch East Indies the book delves into the intimate and often conflicted relationships between European and American colonists and their servants It explores the lives of houseboys cooks and gardeners in the colonial home considers the bell boys and waiters in the grand colonial hotels and follows the stewards and cabin boys on steamships travelling across the Indian and Pacific Oceans This broad conception of service allows Colonialism and Male Domestic Service to illuminate trans colonial or cross border influences through the mobility of servants and their employers This path breaking study is an important book for students and scholars of colonialism labour history and the Asia Pacific region

Culture and Commerce in Conrad's Asian Fiction Andrew Francis,2015-04-23 Andrew Francis Culture and Commerce in Conrad's Asian Fiction is the first book length critical study of commerce in Conrad's work It reveals not only the complex connections between culture and commerce in Conrad's Asian fiction but also how he employed commerce in characterization moral contexts and his depiction of relations at a point of advanced European imperialism Conrad's treatment of commerce Arab Chinese and Malay as well as European is explored within a historically specific context as intricate and resistant to traditional readings of commerce as simple and homogeneous Through the analysis of both literary and non literary sources this book examines capitalism colonialism and globalization within the commercial political and social contexts of colonial Southeast Asia Racisms Francisco Bethencourt,2014-01-19 A groundbreaking history of racism Racisms is the first comprehensive history of racism from the Crusades to the twentieth century Demonstrating that there is not one continuous tradition of racism Francisco Bethencourt shows that racism preceded any theories of race and must be viewed within the prism and context of social hierarchies and local conditions In this richly illustrated book Bethencourt argues that in its various aspects all racism has been triggered by political projects monopolizing specific economic and social resources Racisms focuses on the Western world but opens comparative views on ethnic discrimination and segregation in Asia and Africa Bethencourt looks at different forms of racism and explores instances of enslavement forced migration and ethnic cleansing while analyzing how practices of discrimination and segregation were defended This is a major interdisciplinary work that moves away from ideas of linear or innate racism and recasts our understanding of interethnic relations Trade and Society in the Straits of Melaka Nordin Hussin, 2007 This study compares Melaka and Penang in the context of overall trends policy geographical position nature and direction of trade and morphology and sociology and how these factors were influenced by trade and policies Conclusions are drawn concerning where and how Melaka and Penang fit in the urban traditions of Southeast Asia and the significance of the fact that the period under study coincided with the shift from the height of the Age of Commerce towards a period of heightened imperialist activities
