Literature and the Political Imagination

Andrea T. Baumeister, John Horton, 2013-04-15 This volume shows how modern political theory can be enriched through an engagement with works of literature It uses the resources of literature to explore issues such as nationalism liberal philosophy utopianism narrative and the role of theory in political thought A variety of approaches are adopted and the aim is to show some of the many and diverse ways in which literature may enrich political theorising as well as considering some of the problems to which this may give rise The theorists discussed include Richard Rorty Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor and Martha Nussbaum There are literary references from Greek tragedy Jonathan Swift Brian Moore Elizabeth Bowen and contemporary feminist utopian fiction All the contributors have a long standing interest in the relations between literature and moral and political thought They are concerned not to be restricted by conventional academic boundaries and are not united by any party line or uniformity of intellectual commitments This volume will be of great interest to all students engaged in the study of politics and literature

Socialism and Superior Brains: The Political Thought of George Bernard Shaw Gareth Griffith, 2002-09-11 Available in paperback for the first time Gareth Griffith's book provides a comprehensive critical account of the political ideas of one of the most influential commentators of the twentieth century With close reference to a range of Shaw's texts from the Fabian tracts to the plays Gareth Griffith draws out the central theoretical messages of Shaw's engagement with politics The first part of the book provides an intellectual biography while at the same time analysing Shaw's key concerns in relation to his Fabianism arguments for equality of income and ideas on democracy and education Part Two looks at those areas which Shaw approached as long standing historical problems or dramas requiring immediate thought or action sexual equality the Irish question war fascism and sovietism The book is directed to the general reader as well as to specialists It will be central reading for anyone seeking to understand Shaw's life and literary and political writings or the development of political thinking in this century or the problems and potential inherent in socialism

Home and Identity in Nineteenth-Century Literary London Robertson Lisa C. Robertson, 2020-06-18

Explores radical designs for the home in the nineteenth century metropolis and the texts that shaped them Uncovers a series of innovative housing designs that emerged in response to London's rapid growth and expansion throughout the nineteenth century Brings together the writing of prominent authors such as Charles Dickens and George Gissing with understudied novels and essays to examine the lively literary engagement with new models of urban housing Focuses on the ways that these new homes provided material and creative space for thinking through the relationship between home and identity Identifies ways in which we might learn from the creative responses to the nineteenth century housing crisis This book brings together a range of new models for modern living that emerged in response to social and economic changes in nineteenth century London and the literature that gave expression to their novelty It examines visual and literary representations to explain how these innovations in housing forged opportunities for refashioning definitions of home and identity Robertson offers readers a new blueprint for understanding the ways in which novels imaginatively and materially produce the city's built environment

Late Victorian Utopias: A Prospectus, Volume 1 Gregory Claeys, 2021-03-24 This collection of literary utopias calls for a complete overhaul of existing assumptions about utopian writing in this period The representation of utopian texts in these volumes shows that William Morris is far from representative of basic trends in the genre in this era This is Volume 1 of 6 and looks at selected works from 1875 to 1879

Orwell in Context B. Clarke, 2015-12-26 This bold new reading of Orwell's work focuses upon his representation of communities and the myths that shape them It analyzes his interpretations of class gender and nationality within the context of the period The book uses a range of texts to argue that Orwell attempted to integrate traditional communal identities with socialist politics

Gospels and Grit Rob Breton, 2005-01-01 Examines the literary representations of work and labour in the Victorian works of Carlyle and the 20th century writings of Conrad and Orwell

The Bloomsbury Introduction to Popular Fiction Christine Berberich, 2014-12-18 Guiding readers through key writers and genres historical contexts and major theoretical approaches this is a comprehensive introduction to the study of popular fiction Charting the rise of commercial fiction from the 19th century to today The Bloomsbury Introduction to Popular Fiction includes introductory surveys written by leading scholars to a wide range of popular genres including Science Fiction Crime Writing Romance and Chick Lit Adventure Stories and Lad Lit Horror Graphic Novels Children's Literature Part II of the book also includes case study readings of key writers and texts from the work of HG Wells Ian Fleming and Raymond Chandler to more recent books such as Pride and Prejudice and Zombies The book also includes a chapter covering The Writer's Perspective on popular publishing while annotated guides to further reading and online resources throughout give students the tools they need to pursue independent study on their courses

William Morris and the Idea of Community Anna Vaninskaya, 2010-10-12 The great polymath William Morris and his contemporaries and followers from H Rider Haggard to H G Wells are the focus of this study Anna Vaninskaya draws upon a wide array of primary sources from working class fiction and articles in fringe socialist newspapers to historical treatises autobiographies and diaries in order to explore the many ways Victorians and Edwardians talked about community and modernity Vaninskaya's narrative moves from the realm of romance bestsellers and sniggering reviews to debates in weighty historical tomes and then to the headquarters of revolutionary parties to street corners and shabby lecture halls She demonstrates how in each domain the dream of community clashed with the reality of the modern state and market

Constructions of 'the Jew' in English Literature and Society Bryan Cheyette, 1995-10-26 Combining cultural theory discourse analysis and new historicism with readings of the works of major contemporary authors this study concludes that the Jew is characterized unstereotypically as the embodiment of uncertainty within English literature and society
