Liberalism's Troubled Search for Equality Robert Patrick Jones, 2007 Debate surrounding the 1994 Oregon Death with Dignity Act the first law to legalize physician assisted suicide PAS in America revealed some surprising contradictions Most prominently egalitarian liberal philosophers Ronald Dworkin and John Rawls backed a constitutional right to PAS in direct opposition to many groups of disadvantaged citizens they theoretically supported These groups argued that legalized PAS in the absence of universal access to health care would potentially coerce the disadvantaged to end their lives prematurely because of inadequate financial resources In Liberalism's Troubled Search for Equality Robert P Jones asks why these concerns were dismissed by liberal philosophers and argues that this contradiction exposes a blind spot within liberal political theory
