The Politics Of Ritual And Remembrance Laos Since 1975:

The Politics of Ritual and Remembrance Grant Evans, 1998-01-01 Communist revolutions in this century have suppressed existing ritual and symbolic structures and invented new ones Armed with new flags new national celebrations or new school textbooks they have attempted to reconstruct social memory This fascinating work of political anthropology examines the case of Laos from the heady days of the 1975 revolution to the more sober post socialist present Grant Evans traces the attempt at ritual and symbolic change in Laos and the recent reemergence of older and deeper cultural structures while identifying what has perhaps been irretrievably lost In this challenging study of the cultural consequences of failed total revolution Evans reaches some striking conclusions concerning the nature of social memory cultural possibilities foregone and the need for cultural continuity

Post-war Laos Vathana Pholsena, 2006 More than a quarter of century after the end of the war in 1975 the Lao leadership is still in search for a compelling nationalist narration Its politics of culture and representation appear to be caught between the rhetoric of preservation and the desire for modernity Meanwhile originating from the periphery where ethnic minorities had hitherto been symbolically politically and administratively confined the participation of some of their members in the Indochina Wars 1945-75 exposed these individuals to socialization and politicization processes This rigorously researched and cogently argued book is a fine grained analysis of substantial ethnographic material showing the politics of identity the geographies of memory and the power of narratives of some members of ethnic minority groups who fought during the Vietnam War in the Lao People's Liberation Army and or were educated within the revolutionary administration No study has ever been conducted on the latter's views on the nationalist project of the late socialist era Their own perceptions of their membership of the nation have been overlooked Post War Laos is a set to be a landmark study and an original contribution which refines established theories of nationalism such as Anderson's imagined community by addressing a common weakness namely their tendency to deny agency to individuals who in fact interpret their relationship to and place within the nation in a variety of ways that may change according to time and circumstance

Creating Laos Søren Ivarsson, 2008 This book examines the process through which Laos came into existence under French colonial rule through to the end of World War II Here Laos's position at the intersection of two conflicting spatial layouts of Thailand and Indochina made its national form a particularly contested process Rather than analyze this process in terms of administrative and political structures the book discusses how a specific idea about a separate Lao space and its culture was formed

Culture and Customs of Laos Arne Kislenko, 2009-03-05 This all encompassing volume offers a comprehensive look at the contemporary culture that defines this Southeast Asian country of Laos examining everything from Buddhist traditions to Laotian cuisine Coverage includes a brief history of the nation followed by in depth narrative chapters on religion literature visual and performing arts fashion gender roles everyday social customs and more Through illustrative descriptions of daily life students will learn how traditional customs have shaped contemporary life in Laos today Few other resources provide the same extensive coverage on current culture in Laos Ideal for high school students as well as general readers Culture and Customs of Laos is a must have for all library shelves The Southeast Asian country of Laos one of the world s last standing communist nations has often been overshadowed in the international newsroom by its more dominant neighbors Thailand Vietnam and Cambodia Among one of the most bombed countries in the world one that suffered much during and after the Vietnam War Laos has been struggling economically and politically for decades In spite of these challenges a rich beautiful culture has survived in Laos This exhaustive volume offers a comprehensive look at the contemporary culture that defines this seemingly quiet country from Buddhism to Laotian cuisine Coverage includes a brief history of the nation followed by in depth narrative chapters on religion literature visual and performing arts fashion gender roles everyday social customs and more Through illustrative descriptions of daily life students will learn how traditional customs have shaped contemporary life in Laos today Few other resources provide the same extensive coverage on current culture in Laos Ideal for high school students as well as general readers Culture and Customs of Laos is a must have for all library shelves Cultural Crisis and Social Memory Charles F. Keyes, Shigeharu Tanabe, 2013-10-18 Covers Social Memory a hot topic in anthropology Comparative analysis of two Southeast Asian countries Thailand and Laos Contributes to globalization debate linking it to questions of identity Contesting Visions of the Lao Past Christopher E. Goscha, Søren Ivarsson, 2003 Laos s emergence as a modern nation state in the 20th century owed much to a complex interplay of internal and external forces Arguing that the historiography of Laos needs to be understood in this wider context this study considers how the Lao have written their own nationalist and revolutionary history on the inside while others the French Vietnamese and Thais have attempted to write the history of Laos from the outside for their own political ends As nationalist historiography like the formation of the nation state does not emerge within a nationalist vacuum but rather is created and contested from inside and out this incisive volume s approach has applications and implications far beyond Laos Letters Without Capitals: Text and Practice in Kim Mun (Yao) Culture Jacob Cawthorne, 2020-12-29 Letters without Capitals Texts and Practices in Kim Mun Yao Culture examines the writing culture of Kim Mun communities in Southeast Asia and China The Kim Mun who belong to the Yao ethnic group are renowned for their Daoist religious practices and religious texts written in Chinese script This work takes an unpublished Kim Mun letter that was composed in Laos and sent to Vietnam as its centrepiece Through an analysis of the letter one which uses ethnographic accounts of Kim Mun communities and studies of Kim Mun literary and religious texts it demonstrates that writing is a cultural technology that primarily serves the purposes of the Kim Mun themselves rather than being an artefact of historical and cultural relationships of dependency on external state institutions or religious constituencies This has broad implications regarding our understanding of how writing can be adapted and deployed by minority communities on and beyond the margins of the state and of the underlying relationships between writing identity and power Critical Aspects of Gender in Conflict

Civilizing the Margins Christopher R. Duncan, 2008 Discusses the programs policies and laws that affect ethnic minorities in eight countries Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Viet Nam Once targeted for intervention people such as the Orang Asli of Malaysia and the hill tribes of Thailand often become the subject of programs aimed at radically changing their lifestyles which the government views as backward or primitive Several chapters highlight the tragic consequences of forced resettlement a common result of these programs

Natural Potency and Political Power Sarinda Singh, 2012-01-31 Forests as physical entities have received considerable scholarly attention in political studies of Asia and beyond Much less notice has been paid to the significance of forests as symbols that enable commentary on identity aspirations and authority Natural Potency and Political Power an innovative exploration of the social and political importance of forests in contemporary Laos challenges common views of the rural countryside as isolated and disconnected from national social debates and politics under an authoritarian regime It offers instead a novel understanding of local perspectives under authoritarianism demonstrating that Lao people make implicit political statements in their commentary on forests and wildlife and showing that in addition to being vital material resources forests and their natural potency are linked in the minds of many Lao to the social and political power of the state Sarinda Singh explores the intertwining of symbolic and material concerns in local debates over conservation and development the popularity of wildlife consumption the particular importance of elephants and forest loss and mismanagement In doing so she draws on ethnographic fieldwork around Vientiane the capital and Nakai site of the contentious Nam Theun 2 hydropower project places that are broadly reflective of the divide between urban prosperity and rural poverty Nam Theun 2 supported by the World Bank highlights the local regional and global dynamics that influence discussions of forest resources in Laos Government officials rural villagers and foreign consultants all contribute to competing ideas about forests and wildlife Singh advances research on forest politics by rethinking how ideas about nature influence social life Her work refutes the tendency to see modern social life as independent of historical influences and her attention to viewpoints both inside and outside the state prompts an understanding of authoritarian regimes as not only sources of repression but also sites of negotiation engagement and debate about the legitimacy of social inequalities

Globalization and Its Counter-forces in Southeast Asia Terence Chong, 2003-08-01 This volume is a collection of essays from a diverse group of scholars Collectively they present a multidimensional perspective of globalization in Southeast Asia They delve into the political economic security social and cultural dimensions of globalization and local responses offering evidence of complex interfacing between the global and the local thus championing the need for a multidisciplinary approach to globalization studies This volume depicts globalization as an uneven and sometimes undesired process and resists the temptation for easy conclusions to the challenges facing the region today Champassak Royalty and Sovereignty Ian G. Baird, 2024 The Kingdom of Champassak was founded in 1713 in what is now southern Laos and its royal lineage the House of Champassak continues to the present In this historical study of Champassak Ian G Baird explores the ways it has asserted its sovereignty across time and through monumental historical shifts including the delineation of national boundaries for Laos Thailand and Cambodia in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries In re creating this story Baird draws not only on a dazzling variety of primary sources in English French Lao and Thai but also on many years spent in conversation with members of the Na Champassak family who are now spread across a wide geographical area from Laos and Thailand to France and the United States Each chapter treats one historical period identifying the Champassak approach to sovereignty during that time Through this deep history Baird shows how sovereign power even within one case takes a wide range of forms always contingent contested and uneven across space and time Bomb Children Leah

Zani, 2019-08-16 Half a century after the CIA's Secret War in Laos the largest bombing campaign in history explosive remnants of war continue to be part of people's everyday lives In Bomb Children Leah Zani offers a perceptive analysis of the long term often subtle and unintended effects of massive air warfare Zani traces the sociocultural impact of cluster submunitions known in Laos as bomb children through stories of explosives clearance technicians and others living and working in these old air strike zones Zani presents her ethnography alongside poetry written in the field crafting a startlingly beautiful analysis of state terror authoritarian revival rapid development and ecological contamination In so doing she proposes that postwar zones are their own cultural and area studies offering new ways to understand the parallel relationship between ongoing war violence and postwar revival Fields of Desire Holly High, 2014-02-17 In this important new book High argues that poverty reduction policies are formulated and implemented in fields of desire Drawing on psychoanalytic understandings of desire she shows that such programs circulate around the question of what is lacking Far from rational responses to measures of need then the politics of poverty are unconscious culturally expressed mutually contradictory and sometimes contrary to self interest Based on long term fieldwork in a Lao village that has been the subject of multiple poverty reduction and development programs High s account looks at implementation on the ground While these efforts were laudable in their aims of reducing poverty they often failed to achieve their objectives Local people received them with suspicion and disillusionment Nevertheless poverty reduction policies continued to be renewed by planners and even desired locally High relates this to the force of aspirations among rural Lao ambivalent understandings of power and the post rebellious moment in contemporary Laos , Anthropogenic Rivers Jerome Whittington,2019-01-15 In the 2000s Laos was treated as a model country for the efficacy of privatized sustainable hydropower projects as viable options for World Bank led development By viewing hydropower as a process that creates ecologically uncertain environments Jerome Whittington reveals how new forms of managerial care have emerged in the context of a privatized dam project successfully targeted by transnational activists Based on ethnographic work inside the hydropower company as well as with Laotians affected by the dam he investigates how managers technicians and consultants grapple with unfamiliar environmental obligations through new infrastructural configurations locally inscribed ethical practices and forms of flexible experimentation informed by American management theory Far from the authoritative expertise that characterized classical modernist hydropower sustainable development in Laos has been characterized by a shift from the risk politics of the 1990s to an ontological politics in which the institutional conditions of infrastructure investment are pervasively undermined by sophisticated hactivism Whittington demonstrates how late industrial environments are infused with uncertainty inherent in the anthropogenic ecologies themselves Whereas anthropogenic usually describes human induced environmental change it can also show how new capacities for being human are generated when people live in ecologies shot through with uncertainty Implementing what Foucault called a historical ontology of ourselves Anthropogenic Rivers formulates a new materialist critique of the dirty ecologies of late industrialism by pinpointing the opportunistic ambitious and speculative ontology of capitalist natures The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Buddhism Michael K. Jerryson,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Buddhism offers a comprehensive collection of work by leading scholars in the field They examine the historical development of Buddhist traditions throughout the world from traditional settings like India Japan and Tibet to the less well known regions of Latin America Africa and Oceania
