Social Change in the Gulf Region Md Mizanur Rahman, Amr Al-Azm, 2023-03-21 This open access book comprising thirty nine chapters divided into social cultural economic and political spheres offers a unique opportunity to dive into the complex dynamic and sometimes contradictory transformation of Gulf societies in the last few decades Whilst the Gulf region has at times been seen as impervious to this natural phenomenon of transformation timeless never changing deeply rooted in its ancient tribal customs and traditions and able to blend past and present seamlessly without suffering the wrenching trauma of change this is clearly not the case and the region is not immune to the inevitable forces of social change There is no doubt today that the social change sweeping the Gulf has been profound affecting almost every aspect of life in the Gulf societies This volume has an encyclopedic value as the chapters collectively offer multifaceted and multidisciplinary perspectives to understand social change in the Gulf region Through these chapters the role of economic and educational transformation and the impact of social media migration and urbanization have in driving social change in the Gulf societies is examined in detail with a focus on their directions magnitudes and relevant policy options It also considers how COVID 19 is affecting the lives of the people in the Gulf This book bridges gaps in the understanding of the rapid pace of social change in the Gulf offering practical solutions for policy interventions It is of interest to scholars and students in Middle Eastern studies specifically as well as sociology media studies migration studies and educational policy Social Change and Politics in Turkey K.H. Karpat, 2021-11-15 Modernizing Women Valentine M. Moghadam, 2003 Extrait de la pr face The subject of this study is social change in the Middle East North Africa and Afghanistan its impact on women s legal status and social positions and women s varied responses to and involvement in change processes It also deals with constructions of gender during periods of social and political change Social change is usually described in terms of modernization revolution cultural challenges and social movements Much of the standard literature on these topics does not examine women or gender and thus the author hopes this study will contribute to an appreciation of the significance of gender in the midst of change Neither are there many sociological studies on MENA and Afghanistan or studies on women in MENA and Afghanistan from a sociological perspective Myths and stereotypes abound regarding women Islam and the region and the events of September 11 and since have only compounded them This book is intended in part to normalize the Middle East by underscoring the salience of structural determinants other than religion It focuses on the major social change processes in the region to show how women's lives are shaped not only by Islam and culture but also by economic development the state class location and the world system Why the focus on women It is the author's contention that middle class women are consciously and unconsciously major agents of social change in the region at the vanguard of movements for modernity democratization and citizenship
