Arcangelo Tortello,1680 The Pope's Cabinet Unlocked. By the Author of "Gerald," Etc ,1849 Space in the Medieval West Fanny Madeline,2016-04-01 In the last two decades research on spatial paradigms and practices has gained momentum across disciplines and vastly different periods including the field of medieval studies Responding to this spatial turn in the humanities the essays collected here generate new ideas about how medieval space was defined constructed and practiced in Europe particularly in France Essays are grouped thematically and in three parts from specific sites through the broader shaping of territory by means of socially constructed networks to the larger geographical realm The resulting collection builds on existing scholarship but brings new insight situating medieval constructions of space in relation to contemporary conceptions of the subject Space 1999 and Critical Theory John K. Balor,2017-11-11 The television series SPACE 1999 was in its first series shaped by the late sixties and early seventies counterculture movements making SPACE 1999 into an example of how certain SF scholars see a natural alignment between science fiction and critical theory However due to changes in the political climate SPACE 1999 went through an ideological reversal in its second series As a result the schizophrenic nature of the series has ever since caused debate This book is written on an idealistic basis It is sold at the lowest price the publisher was willing to accept A free e book version can be downloaded at www.lulu.com Weapons in Space Aaron Bateman,2024-05-07 A new and provocative take on the formerly classified history of accelerating superpower military competition in space in the late Cold War and beyond In March 1983 President Ronald Reagan shocked the world when he established the Strategic Defense Initiative SDI derisively known as Star Wars a space based missile defense program that aimed to protect the US from nuclear attack In Weapons in Space Aaron Bateman draws from recently declassified American European and Soviet documents to give an insightful account of SDI situating it within a new phase in the militarization of space after the superpower d tente fell apart in the 1970s In doing so Bateman reveals the largely secret role of military space technologies in late Cold War US defense strategy and foreign relations In contrast to existing narratives Weapons in Space shows how tension over the role of military space technologies in American statecraft was a central source of SDI s controversy even more so than questions of technical feasibility By detailing the participation of Western European countries in SDI research and development Bateman reframes space militarization in the 1970s and 1980s as an international phenomenon He further reveals that even though SDI did not come to fruition it obstructed diplomatic efforts to create new arms control limits in space Consequently Weapons in Space carries the legacy of SDI into the post Cold War era and shows how this controversial program continues to shape the global discourse about instability in space and the growing anxieties about a twenty first century space arms race Perspectives on Public Space in Rome, from Antiquity to the Present Day Jan Gadeyne, 2016-04-22 This volume provides readers interested in urban history with a collection of essays on the evolution of public space in that paradigmatic western city which is Rome Scholars specialized in different historical periods contributed chapters in order to find common themes which weave their way through one of the most complex urban histories of western civilization Divided into five chronological sections Antiquity Middle Ages Renaissance Baroque Modern and Contemporary the volume opens with the issue of how public space was defined in classical Roman law and how ancient city managers organized the maintenance of these spaces before moving on to explore how this legacy was redefined and reinterpreted during the Middle Ages The third group of essays examines how the imposition of papal order on feuding families during the Renaissance helped introduce a new urban plan which could satisfy both functional and symbolic needs The fourth section shows how modern Rome continued to express strong interest in the control and management of public space the definition of which was necessarily selective in this vastly extensive city The collection ends with an essay on the contemporary debate for revitalizing Rome s eastern periphery Through this long term chronological approach the volume offers a truly unique insight into the urban development of one of Europe s most important cities and concludes with a discuss of the challenges public space faces today after having served for so many centuries as a driving force in urban history The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World Jennifer Mara DeSilva, 2016-03-09 In the Early Modern period as both reformed and Catholic churches strove to articulate orthodox belief and conduct through texts sermons rituals and images communities grappled frequently with the connection between sacred space and behavior The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World explores individual and community involvement in the approbation reconfiguration and regulation of sacred spaces and the behavior both animal and human within them The individual s understanding of sacred space and consequently the behavior appropriate within it depended on local need group dynamics and the dissemination of normative expectations While these expectations were defined in a growing body of confessionalizing literature locally and internationally traditional clerical authorities found their decisions contested circumvented or elaborated in order to make room for other stakeholders activities and needs To clearly reveal the efforts of early modern groups to negotiate authority and the transformation of behavior with sacred space this collection presents examples that allow the deconstruction of these tensions and the exploration of the resulting campaigns within sacred space Based on new archival research the eleven chapters in this collection examine diverse aspects of the campaigns to transform Christian behavior within a variety of types of sacred space and through a spectrum of media These essays give voice to the arguments exhortations and accusations that surrounded the activities taking place in early modern sacred space and reveal much about how people made sense of these transformations European Missions to the International Space Station John O'Sullivan, 2020-05-08 The European Space Agency has a long history of human spaceflight working with both NASA and the Soviet Russian space agencies over the years This book tells the story of the ESA astronauts who have visited the International Space Station and their contributions to its development and success For example ESA built the Columbus science laboratory as well as the Cupola the Leonardo PMM and the ATV supply ship But it is the human endeavor that captures the imagination From brief visits to six month expeditions and spacewalking to commanding Earth's only outpost in space and doing experiments ESA astronauts whose personal stories are also told have played a vital role in the international project Many of their efforts are documented in photographs in the book In following up on the missions covered in this author's earlier title In the Footsteps of Columbus 2016 this book highlights European missions from the 2013 Volare mission of Luca Parmitano to his 2019 Beyond mission and includes first flights for Alexander Gerst Samantha Cristoforetti Andreas Mogensen Tim Peake and Thomas Pesquet

Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria, Ian Verstegen, 2021-11-08 The essays in Space Image and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall's seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies especially the spatiality of the church interior the altarpiece's facture and affectivity the notion of artistic style and the controversy over images in the era of Counter Reform Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm this volume better assesses its applicability and range The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries Relating Hall's investigations of Renaissance art to new fields Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar

Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual's self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women s movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen s activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis

The Way We Think Gilles Fauconnier, Mark Turner, 2008-08-06 In its first two decades much of cognitive science focused on such mental functions as memory learning symbolic thought and language acquisition the functions in which the human mind most closely resembles a computer But humans are more than computers and the cutting edge research in cognitive science is increasingly focused on the more mysterious creative aspects of the mind The Way We Think is a landmark synthesis that exemplifies this new direction The theory of conceptual blending is already widely known in laboratories throughout the world this book is its definitive statement Gilles Fauconnier and Mark Turner argue that all learning and all thinking consist of blends of metaphors based on simple bodily experiences These blends are then themselves blended together into an increasingly rich structure that makes up our mental functioning in modern society A child s entire development consists of learning and navigating these blends The Way We Think shows how this blending operates how it is affected by and gives rise to language identity and concept of category and the rules by which we use blends to understand ideas that are new to us The result is a bold exciting and accessible new view of how the mind works

Humans in Outer Space - Interdisciplinary Odysseys Luca Codignola-Bo, Kai-Uwe Schrogl, 2009-06-18 Humans and space When faced with the issue of space exploration one generally has an idea of the fields of study and disciplines that are involved technology physics and chemistry robotics astronomy and planetary science space biology and medicine disciplines which are usually referred to as the sciences In recent discussions the human element of space exploration has attracted more and more the interest of the space sciences As a consequence adjacent disciplines have gained in relevance in space exploration and space research in times when human space rights are almost part of everyday life These disciplines include psychology and sociology but also history philosophy anthropology cultural studies political sciences and law The contribution of knowledge in these fields plays an important role in achieving the next generation of space exploration where humans will resume exploring the Moon and eventually Mars and where space tourism is beginning to be developed With regard to technology one might soon be prepared for this Much less is this the case with space exploration by humans rather than by robots Robotic explorations to other planets across the solar system have developed in the past 50 years since the beginning of the space age with the presence of humans in nearby space and the landing on the Moon Space exploration is now not only focused on technological achievements as its development also has social cultural and economic impacts This makes human space exploration a topic to address in a cross disciplinary manner Heritage Auctions Space Exploration Auction Catalog #6007 Marsha
