The Story of Charlotte Mason, 1842-1923 Essex Cholmondeley, 2021-01-01 Charlotte Mason 1842-1923 orphaned and poor at the age of sixteen nonetheless developed into an inspiring and original educational reformer of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century, a period of great intellectual vitality and cultural change. Enabled through the help of friends and colleagues, she founded the Parents' National Educational Union (PNEU) in 1887 and established the The House of Education, the Teacher Training College for women in Ambleside in 1892. The clarity and coherence of her applied philosophy of education established the foundation for a simple, stimulating and deeply satisfying enjoyment of learning for children of all ages in countless homes and schools in Britain and the world. In her biography, Essex Cholmondeley draws on her own experiences of Mason's teaching as well as her extensive literary output to unfold her life and work. Whilst she and Elsie Kitching lacked full details of Mason's family history, a warm and lively personality emerges, able to inspire other people with her own splendid vision. James Mason in America Joost van Winsen, 2020-01-30 The 1860s and 1870s were a golden time for chess journalism in the United States; a particularly nice touch is the reproduction of drawings of several chess clubs of the day, a first-rate effort that will be fascinating reading for anyone interested in chess in 19th-century America. A first-class production, effort with high-quality paper and library binding, recommended. IM John Donaldson. Jeremy Silman.com. Invaluable, excellent. Manchester Chess Federation. Invaluable. The Compulsive Reader. Exceptionally good. ChessCafe.com. Beautifully bound and printed. Flows like a novel, very much a 21st-century book on a 19th-century topic. British Chess Magazine. A rich look at the early career of a fine player and writer and the development of the American chess scene. Chessville. Few men are prominent chess players as well as esteemed chess writers. James Mason, in his lifetime, had the reputation of being both. This book chronicles Mason's early career in the United States, providing many details on his writings and annotations for The Spirit of the Times and The American Chess Journal, his participation in the Cafe Europa and Cafe International tournaments, his win in 1876's Fourth American Chess Congress, and his matches against chess greats like George H. Mackenzie, Eugene Delmar, Dion M. Martinez, Edward Alberoni, and Henry E. Bird. Mason's efforts to establish an American Chess Association and to arrange an international centennial congress in 1876 are also explored In addition to the general index the work also includes indexes of games annotators and openings Delphi Complete Works of A. writers whether born in Mississippi New York or elsewhere have consistently both loved and hated the South Harris explains that for these authors the South represents not so much a place or even a culture as a rite of passage Not one of them can consider himself or herself a true African American writer without confronting the idea of the South in a decisive way Harris considers native born black southerners Raymond Andrews Ernest J Gaines Edward P Jones Tayari Jones Yusef Komunyakaa Randall Kenan and Phyllis Alesia Perry and nonsouthern writers James Baldwin Sherley Anne Williams and Octavia E Butler The works Harris examines date from Baldwin s Blues for Mr Charlie 1964 to Edward P Jones s The Known World 2003 By including Komunyakaa s poems and Baldwin s play as well as male and female authors Harris demonstrates that the writers preoccupation with the South cuts across lines of genre and gender Whether their writings focus on slavery migration from the South to the North or violence on southern soil and whether they celebrate the triumph of black southern heritage over repression or castigate the South for its treatment of blacks these authors cannot escape the call of the South Indeed Harris asserts that creative engagement with the South represents a defining characteristic of African American writing A singular work by one of the foremost literary scholars writing today The Scary Mason Dixon Line superbly demonstrates how history and memory continue to figure powerfully in African American literary creativity Women's Agency and Rituals in Mixed and Female Masonic Orders Alexandra Heidle, J.A.M. Snoek, 2008-12-31 Women have been structurally part of the masonic enterprise from at least the middle of the 18th century Yet little is known about the ways in which they themselves obtained and exercised power to influence the systems they were involved in in order to adapt them to be more appropriate to their needs This volume intends to concentrate on two aspects Women s agency i e the power women gained and exercised in this context and rituals i e the role of men and women in changing and shaping the rituals women work with These two aspects are closely related since it requires some agency to realise changes in existing rituals The Freemasons' Magazine and Masonic Mirror ,1868 Masonic Voice-review ,1912 Jackson, Mason and Putnam Counties West Virginia Geological and Economic Survey, Charles E.
