The Power of Character Michael S. Josephson, Wes Hanson, 1998-10-06 A collection of essays by some of today's most well known Americans includes writings by Dr. Laura Schlessinger, Alan Dershowitz, and Dan Rather. Effective Leadership Len Sperry, 2013-05-13 This book will interest clinicians who have wondered what professional practice would be like in the corporate setting and want to learn more about the psychological and organizational dynamics that drive executive behavior. Based on the premise that leadership effectiveness is a function of both leader productivity and health, this book reviews the latest information and research data and offers case studies to illustrate specific strategies for maximizing executive health. Len Sperry has been consulting to executives and organizations for 30 years and has written numerous articles and several books on executives and workplace dynamics. The Power of Social Skills in Character Development Jennifer L. Scully, 2000 This book gives you 80 powerful classroom-tested lesson plans. A complete program for helping your students gain self-esteem and improve relationships with peers, teachers, and adults outside of school. Ten Traits of Highly Effective Principals Elaine K. McEwan, 2003-05-30 I feel that this is a book that principals will be interested in purchasing and reading. It has practical advice and relevant examples of how the advice can and has been implemented. Phillip Silsby, Principal, Belleville West High School, Belleville, IL. I could hear the voices of some of the principals who were interviewed speaking to me. The author clearly knows how to gather information and present it in a meaningful way. Bonnie Tryon, Zone 2 Director, National Association of Elementary School Principals. This is a powerful guidebook for new principals. More than that, it also contains valuable insight and examples to assist veteran principals in growing and improving professionally. Kimberly Kay Janisch, Principal, Watertown High School, Watertown, SD. How can principals raise achievement levels, energize teachers, and get results? How can you remain productive and effective in this age of accountability? Highly effective principals have strong communication skills, high levels of knowledge about teaching and learning, and the ability to provide instructional leadership. This excellent new resource provides principals, administrative teams, and educators with tremendous resources to hone these skills and traits. Ten Traits of Highly Effective Principals contains ideas, reflections, behaviors, habits, and stories from the trenches to guide and inspire as you seek to increase your own effectiveness. Each chapter in this resource describes an essential component of personal effectiveness. A highly effective principal is: A communicator (listen, empathize, and connect), An educator with a depth of knowledge (motivates intellectual growth), An envisioner (focused on the vision of what schools can be), A facilitator (building strong relationships), A change master (flexible, futuristic, and realistic) and can motivate change, A culture builder (communicating and modeling a strong, viable vision), An activator (with motivation, energy, and enthusiasm to spare), A producer (building intellectual development and academic achievement), A character builder (whose values are trustworthiness, respect, and integrity), A contributor (whose priority is making contributions to the success of others). Transform your school into a community of learners, set high academic and behavioral expectations, and create a culture.
