a destiny more sublime that ever issued be of interest to academics scholars and clinicians alike The Practice of self-inquiry. P.V.S. SURYANARAYANA RAJU,2012-02-09 Self inquiry does not demand any faith nor does it depend on any system of thought or belief It demands integrated awareness and right effort which dissolve self centred illusions limitations and thus bring about the revelation of blissful reality If you really want to help others you must discern your own limitation We must note that self inquiry is not a theology A man protecting himself constantly through such knowledge is obviously not a truth seeker When you want to find something new the mind must be quiet If the mind is crowded filled with the facts and borrowed knowledge they act as the impediment to the new The difficulty for most of us is that the mind i e thought has become so important so predominantly significant that it interferes constantly with anything that may be new with anything that may exist simultaneously with the known Thus borrowed knowledge and learning are impediments for those who would seek for those who would try to understand that which is beyond thought The Art & Practice of Spiritual Herbalism Karen M. Harmes,Patrick Alan Danaher,2017-10-10 Academics working in contemporary universities are experiencing unprecedented and unsustainable pressure in an environment of hyper performativity metrics and accountability From this perspective the university produces multiple tensions and moments of crises where it seems that there is limited space left for the intrinsic enjoyment arising from scholarly practices This book offers a global perspective on how pleasure is central to the endeavours of academics working in the contemporary university with contributors evaluating the opportunities for the strategic refusal of the quantifying stultifying and stupefying delimiters of what is possible for academic production The aim of this book is to open up spaces for conversation reflection and thought in order to think to be and to do differently pleasurably Contributors rupture the bounds of what is permissible and possible within their daily lives habits and practices As such this book addresses increasingly significant questions What are some of the multiple and different ways that we can reclaim pleasure and enhance the durations and intensities of our passions desires and becomings within the contemporary university How might these aspirations be realised What are the spaces for the pleasurable production of research that might be opened up How might we reconfigure the neoliberal university to be a place of more affect where desire laughter and joy join with the work that we seek to undertake and the communities whom we serve
