New Readings in the Literature of British India, c. 1780-1947 Shafquat Towheed, 2007-10-01 The Aubrey Menen, 1969 contributions to this book amply demonstrate the richness vitality and complexity of the colonial transactions between Britain and India over the last two centuries and they do so by approaching the topic from a specific perspective by interpreting the rubric new readings as broadly creatively and productively as possible They cover a wide range of literary responses and genres eighteenth century drama the gothic novel verse autobiography history religious writing journalism women s memoirs travel writing popular fiction and the modernist novel Brought together in one volume these essays offer a small but representative sample of the multifaceted literary and cultural traffic between Britain and India in the colonial period In the richness and diversity of the various contributors strategies and interpretations these new readings urge us to return once again to texts that we think we know as well as to explore those that we do not with a freshly renewed sense of their complexity immediacy and relevance Postcolonial Satire Amy L. Friedman, 2019-10-16 Postcolonial Satire Indian Fiction and the Reimagining of Menippean Satire positions postcolonial South Asian satiric fiction at the intersection of the cutting edge territory of political resistance writing and the ancient tradition of Menippean satire Postcolonial Satire disrupts the relationship between postcolonial literature and magic realism by discussing the work of writers such as G V Desani Aubrey Menen Salman Rushdie and Irwin Allan Sealy as one movement into the entirely subversive realm of satire Indian fiction as well as the fiction of other colonized cultures can be re construed through the lens of satire as openly critical of a broad spectrum of political and cultural issues Employing the strengths of postcolonial theory and criticism Postcolonial Satire expands upon the postcolonial works of these authors by analyzing them as satire rather than magical realism with satirical elements The Satanic Witch Anton Szandor LaVey, 2003-02-01 The late Anton Szandor LaVey founder of the Church of Satan may be the most notoriously familiar for his Satanic Bible but The Satanic Witch best reflects the discoveries Anton made in his younger days working the carry shows and Mitt Camps This is undiluted Gypsy lore regarding the forbidden knowledge of seduction and manipulation The Satanic Witch is not designed for Barbie Dolls but women cunning and crafty enough to employ the workable formulas within which instantly surpass the entire catalogue of self help tomes and New Age idiocies The Introduction Peggy Nadramia High Priestess of the Church of Satan tells us how this book changed her life The Afterword Blanche Barton Anton LaVey's biographer Chairmistress of the Council of Nine and mother of Satan Xerxes Carnacki LaVey Anton's third child informs us how The Satanic Witch came to pass and influence the behavior of so many South Asian Writers in Twentieth-Century Britain Ruvani Ranasinha, 2007-02-22 South Asian Writers in women Twentieth Century Britain is the first book to provide a historical account of the publication and reception of South Asian anglophone writing from the 1930s to the present based on original archival research drawn from a range of publishing houses This comparison of succeeding generations of writers who emigrated to or were born in Britain examines how the experience of migrancy the attitudes towards migrant writers in the literary market place and the critical reception of them changed significantly throughout the twentieth century Ranasinha shows how the aesthetic cultural and political context changed significantly for each generation producing radically different kinds of writing and transforming the role of the postcolonial writer of South Asian origin The extensive use of original materials from publishers archives shows how shifting political academic and commercial agendas in Britain and North America influenced the selection content presentation and consumption of many of these texts The differences between writers of different generations can thus in part be understood in terms of the different demands of their publishers and expectations of readers in each decade Writers from different generations are paired accordingly in each chapter Nirad Chaudhuri 1897 1999 with Tambimuttu 1915 83 Ambalavener Sivanandan born 1923 with Kamala Markandaya born 1924 Salman Rushdie born 1947 with Farrukh Dhondy born 1944 and Hanif Kureishi born 1954 with Meera Syal born 1963 Raja Rao Mulk Raj Anand Attia Hosain V S Naipaul and Aubrey Menen are also discussed The Cambridge History of Black and Asian British Writing Susheila Nasta, Mark U. Stein, 2020-01-16 The Cambridge History of Black and Asian British Writing provides a comprehensive historical overview of the diverse literary traditions impacting on this field s evolution from the eighteenth century to the present Drawing on the expertise of over forty international experts this book gathers innovative scholarship to look forward to new readings and perspectives while also focusing on undervalued writers texts and research areas Creating new pathways to engage with the naming of a field that has often been contested readings of literary texts are interwoven throughout with key political social and material contexts In making visible the diverse influences constituting past and contemporary British literary culture this Cambridge History makes a unique contribution to British Commonwealth postcolonial transnational diasporic and global literary studies serving both as one of the first major reference works to cover four centuries of black and Asian British literary history and Alston and Heyns on Unlawful Killings: A Compendium of the Jurisprudence as a compass for future scholarship of the United Nations Special Rapporteurs on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions from 2004-2016 Philip Alston, Christof Heyns, Sarah Knuckey, Thomas Probert, 2020-01-01 This book provides a detailed overview of the law and policy related to unlawful killings and the right to life It is organized into the key thematic issues and types of killings that arose during the mandate of the UN Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial summary or arbitrary executions between 2004 2016 Each chapter contains an introductory overview and selected extracts from UN Special Rapporteur reports to the United Nations General Assembly and the Human Rights Council and other normative work and covers the applicable international law policy considerations and common fact scenarios Philip Alston held the mandate of United Nations Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial summary or arbitrary executions between 2004 and 2010 Christof Heyns did so from 2010 to 2016 This book was created to provide easy access to the work of the Special Rapporteurs and to be a useful guide for those studying and working to promote respect for human rights The book was edited by the two rapporteurs together with their main advisors during their tenure as mandate holders Sarah Knuckey and Thomas Probert Annual Report on the Prevalence of Plant Diseases in the Dominion of Canada Plant Research Institute (Canada),1959 Summary of Ronald Hutton's The Witch Everest Media, 2022-06-22T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The four distinguishing features of the European witch stereotype are that they are believed to work primarily on neighbors and kin rather than strangers they are generally hostile to society they are not allowed to use legitimate means of pursuing feuds or rivalries and they must be resisted 2 The five definitive components of the witch figure are the subject of much debate among experts in the European witch trials However they do provide a more precise checklist of characteristics than has been used previously 3 The shift within anthropology itself as the European colonial empires dissolved was a reaction against the traditional framework of the discipline It was hostile to the imposition of European terms and concepts on other societies and it preferred to study particular communities as unique entities 4 The change in anthropology was reflected in the study of witchcraft The concept of the witch was dissolved into a larger framework of reference and historians were warned off using ethnographic material Feminist Afterlives of the Witch Brydie Kosmina, 2023-03-31 The book investigates the witch as a key rhetorical symbol in twentieth and twenty first century feminist memory politics activism and popular culture The witch demonstrates the inheritance of paradoxical pasts traversing numerous ideological memoryscapes This book is an examination of the ways that the witch has been deployed by feminist activists and writers in their political efforts in the twentieth century and how this has indelibly affected cultural memories of the witch and the witch trials and how this plays out in popular culture representations of the symbol through the twentieth and twenty first centuries Consequently this book considers the relationship between popular culture and media activist politics and cultural memory Using hauntological theories of memory and temporality and literary screen and cultural studies methodologies this book considers how popular culture remembers misremembers and forgets usable pasts and the uses and misuses of these memories for feminist politics Given the ubiquity of the witch in popular culture politics and activism since 2016 this book is a timely examination of the range of meanings inherent to the figure and is an important study of how cultural symbols like the witch inherit paradoxical memories histories and politics The book will be valuable for scholars across disciplines including witchcraft studies feminist philosophy and history memory studies and popular culture studies
