The Oracle's Queen Lynn Flewelling, 2008-11-26 Under the rule of a usurper king the realm of Skala has suffered famine plague and invasion But now the time for the rightful heir has come a return to the tradition of warrior queens And the Lightbearer's prophecy is to be upheld at last so long as a daughter of the royal line defends and rules Skala will never be subjugated Now a mystical fire has burned away the male body known as Prince Tobin revealing Princess Tam a girl on the verge of womanhood and a queen ready to claim her birthright after a life in disguise under the protection of wizards and witches But will her people her army and the friends she was forced to deceive accept her Worse will the crown's rival heir friend to Tobin turn foe to Tam igniting civil war in a fierce battle for Skala

Power of the Priests Sabine Kubisch, Hilmar Klinkott, 2023-12-31 Religion plays a central role in nearly every aspect in people's life of most pre modern cultures Especially the interconnection between religion and politics is a common fact but the details of this relation and interacting processes behind this are not substantially studied Therefore this volume does not aim to confirm the linkage of religion and politics in general but to investigate its functionalities in political processes A focus is placed on the political role of religious personnel beyond their religious and cultic tasks and their influence in pre modern societies from a cross cultural perspective Specialists from various disciplines present their research based on case studies Thereby this interdisciplinary volume covers a wide geographical and chronological range from ancient Egypt in the Bronze Age until medieval England These papers are organised according to core functions questioning the instrumentalisation of religious personnel

In the Dust of the Rabbi Ray Vander Laan, 2006 This sixth Faith Lessons volume takes you to Galilee in Israel where Jesus called his first disciples to follow Him Then on to Priene and Didyma in Turkey where their disciples learned what it meant to follow the Rabbi

Vol. 3 Mazi Azubike Okoro,Mazi Ben Ezumah,2017-11-15 Arochukwu kingdom has a great history made more profound and authentic by its deep rooted culture and traditions Also it s richly endowed with abundance of human and material resources enough to transform it into an enviable society This was demonstrated by the socio economic and political exploits of our forebears in the 18th and 19th centuries when the kingdom was a Mecca of sorts This book is incisive thought provoking and a compendium of thoroughly researched data on Arochukwu history and civilization It is authored by Aro citizens themselves and draws attention to some of the salient issues and grey areas which are yet to be successfully resolved by researchers

The topos of Divine Testimony in Luke-Acts James R. McConnell,2014-07-21 In this study James McConnell addresses the concept of authoritative testimony in Luke Acts Specifically he argues that particular elements in the narrative of Luke Acts can be understood as instances of the topos of divine testimony through utterances and deeds considered in some ancient rhetorical handbooks to be the most authoritative form of testimony when seeking to persuade an audience McConnell claims the gods testimony was used in ancient law courts and political speeches to persuade a judge of a defendant s guilt or innocence and in attempts in public forums to convince others of a particular course of action Similarly the topos is used in ancient narratives and biographies to legitimate certain characters and discredit others The instances of the topos of God s speech both oral and through OT citations and deeds in Luke Acts are functioning in the same way The Encyclopædia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes,1891 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1894 The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1907 Grecian and Roman Mythology Mary Ann Dwight,1882 Jeremiah 26-52

Carolyn Sharp,2021-11-22 This commentary illumines Jer 26 52 through historical literary feminist and postcolonial analysis Ideologies of subjugation and resistance are entangled in the Jeremiah traditions The reader is guided through narratives of extreme violence portrayals of iconic allies and adversaries and complex gestures of scribal resilience Judah s cultural trauma is refracted through prose that mimics Neo Babylonian colonizing ideology dramatic scenes of survival and poetry alight with the desire for vengeance against enemies The commentary s historical and literary arguments are enriched by insights from archaeology feminist translation theory and queer studies The Catholic Encyclopedia: New

Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield,1892 Includes section Reviews of recent theological literature Making Faces Alka Hingorani,2012-09-30 Taberam Soni Labh Singh Amar Singh and other artists live and work in the hill villages of the lower Himalayas in Himachal Pradesh India There they fashion face images of deities mohras out of thin sheets of precious metal Commissioned by upper caste patrons the objects are cultural embodiments of divine and earthly kinship As the artists make the images they also cross caste boundaries in a part of India where such differences still determine rules of contact and correspondence proximity and association Once a mohra has been completed and consecrated its maker is not permitted to touch it or enter the temple in which it is housed yet during its creation the artist is sovereign treated deferentially as he shares living quarters with the high caste patrons Making Faces tells the story of these god makers the gods they make and the communities that participate in the creative process and its accompanying rituals For the author the process of learning about Himachal its art and artists the people who make their home there involved pursuing itinerant artists across difficult mountainous terrain with few if any means of communication between the thinly populated high altitude villages The harsh geography of the region permits scant travel and the itinerant artisan forms a critical link to the world outside villages that commission mohras are often populated by a small number of families Alka Hingorani evokes this world in rich visual and descriptive detail as she explores the ways in which both object and artisan are received and their identities transformed during a period of artistic endeavor Making Faces is an original and evocative account superbly illustrated of the various phases in the lifecycle of a mohra at different times a religious icon an art object and a repository of material wealth in an otherwise subsistence economy It will be welcomed by scholars and students of anthropology material culture religion art history and South Asian studies
