Murray, John V. Taylor, 1982      The Primal Vision: Christian Presence Amid African Religion John V. Taylor, 1977      Christian Presence Amid African Religion John Vernon Taylor, 1963      Primal Vision John Vernon Taylor, 1994-02-01      Primal Spirituality of Indigenous Songs in African Christianity. A Theological and Ethical Analysis of Some Selected Lyrics of Agbadza and Bobobo Music Ron Macaulay, 2024-07-24 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2024 in the subject Didactics Theology Religion Pedagogy grade 3 95 A University of Ghana Legon Selinus University of Sciences and Literature course Theology and Ethics language English abstract Africans have the capability to express their primal knowledge to enrich their Christian faith Their primal spiritual knowledge is expressed through oral means such as singing accompanied by drumming and dancing The expression of their primal spirituality helps them to present their spirit soul and body wholly to God This primal condition of being spiritual is the personal quality prior to any other religious beliefs such as Christianity Therefore African Christianity is how to live the Christian faith and worship God within the African way of life and not necessarily syncretising different systems of religious beliefs but the expression of the soundness of Africanness Hence the thesis has been grounded in The Concept of Africanness in African Christianity which is how Christianity would communicate with African cultural heritage A distinct way of expressing Africanness can be noticed when Agbadza and B b b music and the lyrics that are akin to Scripture are engaged in some African churches to worship God This primal expression is functionally identical in the Apostles Revelation Society and some branches of the Global Evangelical Church hereinafter called the ARS and GEC respectively Nevertheless while Agbadza is culturally considered as war music among the Anlo E e B b b music among the E edome is also seen as immoral and frowned upon Notwithstanding these mixed feelings towards Agbadza and B b b cultural music majority of Christians get exceedingly excited about the engagements between these cultural music and Christian faith in their churches The main objectives of the study are to find out why they get excited when these cultural music are being engaged in the churches and the war and immoral nature of these music In addition the theological and ethical thoughts on some selected lyrics are considered Finally

what would the ARS and GEC do differently to lay bare the impact these cultural music should have on their communities which guarantee their future and sustainability in the churches In order to achieve the objectives of the study theological ethical and phenomenological methods are blended as qualitative technique has been adopted in data collection and analysis The reason why the worshippers get excited about these cultural music had been explored and the theological and ethical thoughts on the practice were examined Primal Religion and the Bible Gillian M. Bediako,1997-08-01 This important study of the published and unpublished writings of Scotland s most brilliant and controversial nineteenth century theologian focuses on his concern to situate biblical religion within the context of the primal religions of Israel s neighbours The book explores the implications of the relationship between the Christian faith and primal religion Robertson Smith has still a contribution to make to contemporary discussion of the phenomenology of the Christian faith and Christian responses to religious pluralism African Religion Laurenti Magesa,2014-07-30 Describes the moral teachings values norms and principles to follow so that life might be abundant for all of the African religion as it relates to individuals and community

Shembe, Ancestors, and Christ Edley J. Moodley PhD,2008-08-18 The Christian axis has shifted dramatically southward to Africa Asia and Latin America so much so that today there are more Christians living in these southern regions than among their northern counterparts In the case of Africa the African Initiated Churches founded by Africans and primarily for Africans has largely contributed to the exponential growth and proliferation of the Christian faith in the continent Yet even more profoundly these churches espouse a brand of Christianity that is indigenized and thoroughly contextual Further the power and popularity of the AICs beyond the unprecedented numbers joining these churches are attributed to their relevance to the existential everyday needs and concerns of their adherents in the context of a postcolonial Africa At the heart of Christian theology is Christology the confessed uniqueness of Christ in history and among world religions Yet this key feature of Christianity as with other important elements of the Christian faith may be variously understood and re interpreted in these indigenous churches The focus of this study is the amaNazaretha Church an influential religious group founded by the African charismatic prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1911 in the province of KwaZulu Natal South Africa The movement today claims a following of some two million adherents and has proliferated beyond the borders of South Africa to neighboring countries in Southern Africa The book addresses the complex and at times ambivalent understanding of the person and work of Christ in the amaNazaretha Church presenting the genesis history beliefs and practices of this significant religious movement in South Africa with broader implications for similar movements across the continent of Africa and beyond

Christianity and Religious Plurality Wilbert R. Shenk,Richard J. Plantinga,2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today s radically context sensitive world     The Pluralistic Vision Milton J.

Coalter,John M. Mulder,Louis Weeks,1992-01-01 Essays in this valuable book examine the results of research on theological education in the twentieth century spiritual formation among seminarians and the changing nature of Presbyterian related colleges Several essays review Christian education among Presbyterians focusing on the forming of curricula and publications from denominational presses Through its examination of American Presbyterianism the Presbyterian Presence series illuminates patterns of change in mainstream Protestantism and American religious and cultural life in the twentieth century     A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Y. Atsen,2022-12-16 Who is Jesus Christ in a context of violence and bloodshed such as that experienced by Christians in Northern Nigeria This is the question at the heart of Dr Isuwa Atsen s study of global Christology His aim however is not to develop a Christology that is unique to Northern Nigeria but a Christology that is contextually and conceptually relevant to the real concerns of Nigerian Christians while maintaining a catholic and scriptural understanding of the person of Jesus Christ In order to do so he weaves together three diverse christological approaches examining the intersection of contextual theology analytic theology and the theological interpretation of Scripture The approach thereby presents some helpful insights for theological methodology in general This is an excellent resource for theologians students and all those involved in the task of global Christology     Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo,2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8 29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus s invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus s expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts In Re imagining African Christologies Victor I Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non African Christian communities     Jesus and the Gospel in Africa Kwame Bediako,2004 Jesus and the Gospel in Africa collects writings by Kwame Bediako and is the best source for his insights into the Christ of present day African history and the Jesus of African faith Bediako shows how intimately bound together are such elements as the message of Jesus and the struggle to give birth to African democracy Book Jacket The Church Mission Society Brian Stanley, Kevin Ward, 2019-07-12 The Church Missionary Society now renamed the Church Mission Society has been for most of its 200 year history the largest and most influential of the British Protestant missionary agencies Its bicentenary in 1999 is being marked by the publication of this collection of historical and theological essays by an international team of scholars including Lamin Sanneh Kenneth Cragg and Geoffrey A Oddie The volume contains re assessments of the classic centenary history of the CMS by Eugene Stock and of the strategic vision of Henry Venn one of the two architects of the Three Self theory of the indigenous church There are chapters on the close links between the CMS and the Basel Mission women missionaries and regional studies of Samuel Crowther and the Niger mission Iran the Middle East New Zealand India and Kikuyu Christianity The volume makes a major contribution to the growing body of literature on the indigenization of missionary traditions and will be of interest to historians of the missionary movement and non western Christianity as well as theologians concerned with religious pluralism dialogue and Christian mission Akan Christology Charles Sarpong Aye-Addo, 2013-07-12 As Christianity expands and grows in Africa there is deep new interest in African theology in general and the way in which some African theologians are interpreting the significance of Christ within African culture in particular This volume explores the Christology of two of the foremost African thinkers against the background of the West African Akan culture The result is a rare and fascinating look at some of the key cultural symbols of African culture the struggle to reinterpret the white blond blue eyed Christ presented by pioneering missionaries to Africa and the pitfalls and promises that attend the exercise The selected theologians John Samuel Pobee and Kwame Bediako are put into a critical conversation with Karl Barth in order to initiate a dialogue between Western theology and African theology that brings to the fore some of the pertinent issues about the particularity and universality of Christ The volume while seeking to make Christ relevant for Africa moves away from romanticizing African culture and insists on being faithful to the biblical witness to Christ The result is an attempt to present an engaging piece of work that makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates on Christology and indigenous theology Golden Buttons Kauta Msiska, 2018-05-20 Stephen Kauta Msiska was ordained to the ministry in 1945 and served the Livingstonia Synod in a number of lakeshore parishes before being appointed first a tutor and later Principal of the united CCAP Theological College at Nkhoma where he taught from 1962 to 1974 His from stand for what he understood to be the principles of the Christian Gospel led to a clash with the one party regime and he was forced to flee to his home village and to live there in relative obscurity This book makes accessible some of the fruits not only of his years of active pastoral ministry and theological teaching but also of his time of lonely suffering and sorrow Distinctive in the writing of this pioneering theologian is a profound though not uncritical sympathy with the traditional religion of his people combined with a passionate concern for authentic Christian discipleship Careful readers of this original and thoughtful book will find the golden buttons which Stephen Kauta is determined should not be lost      Theology and Identity Kwame Bediako, 2011-06-01 Kwame Bediako examines the question of Christian identity in the context of the Greco Roman culture of the early Roman Empire He then addresses the modern African predicament of quests for identity and integration Theology and Identity was one of the finalists for the 1992 HarperCollins Religious Book Award
