The Primitive A Novel:

The True Story of the Novel Margaret Anne Doody, 1996 An erudite intelligent and imaginative work of literary scholarship With vivacity grace and wit Doody traces the history of the novel from the ancient novels of Apuleius and Heliodorus through the Renaissance fictions of Boccaccio Cervantes and Rabelais to the official birth of the novel in 18th century England BOSTON GLOBE 39 illustrations

Female Embodiment and Subjectivity in the Modernist Novel Renée Dickinson, 2012-08-21 This study considers the work of two experimental British women modernists writing in the tumultuous interwar period Virginia Woolf and Olive Moore by examining four crucial incarnations of female embodiment and subjectivity female bodies geographical imagery national ideology and textual experimentation Dickinson proposes that the ways Mrs Dalloway and The Waves by Virginia Woolf and Spleen and Fugue by Olive Moore reflect expose and criticize physical geographical and national bodies in the narrative and form of their texts reveal the authors attempts to try on new forms and experiment with new possibilities of female embodiment and subjectivity

Latin America's New Historical Novel Seymour Menton, 2010-07-22 Beginning with the 1979 publication of Alejo Carpentier's El arpa y la sombra the New Historical Novel has become the dominant genre within Latin American fiction In this at times tongue in cheek postmodern study Seymour Menton explores why the New Historical Novel has achieved such popularity and offers discerning readings of numerous works Menton argues persuasively that the proximity of the Columbus Quincentennial triggered the rise of the New Historical Novel After defining the historical novel in general he identifies the distinguishing features of the New Historical Novel Individual chapters delve deeply into such major works as Mario Vargas Llosa's La guerra del fin del mundo Abel Posse's Los perros del paraíso Gabriel García Márquez's El general en su laberinto and Carlos Fuentes La campaña A chapter on the Jewish Latin American novel focuses on several works that deserve greater recognition such as Pedro Orgambide's Aventuras de Edmund Ziller en tierras del Nuevo Mundo Moacyr Scliar's A estranha nação de Rafael Mendes and Angelina Muñoz's Tierra adentro

The Anthropological Imagination in Latin American Literature Amy Fass Emery, 1996 Emery develops the concept of an anthropological imagination that is the conjunction of anthropology and fiction in twentieth century Latin American literature Emery also gives consideration to documentary and testimonial writings

Critical Passions Jean Franco, 1999 The author one of the most influential Latin Americanists in the US has published a number of books but none display the importance of her work in literary criticism cultural studies and marxist and feminist theory as successfully as this collection of

Hendrix,2019-11-27 Despite the growing importance of economics in our lives literary scholars have long been reluctant to consider economic issues as they examine key texts This volume seeks to fill one of these conspicuous gaps in the critical literature by focusing on various connections between science fiction and economics with some attention to related fields such as politics and government Its seventeen contributors include five award winning scholars five science fiction writers and a widely published economist Three topics are covered what noted science fiction writers like Robert A Heinlein Frank Herbert and Kim Stanley Robinson have had to say about our economic and political future how the competitive and ever changing publishing marketplace has affected the growth and development of science fiction from the nineteenth century to today and how the scholars who examine science fiction have themselves been influenced by the economics of academia Although the essays focus primarily on American science fiction the traditions of Russian and Chinese science fiction are also examined A comprehensive bibliography of works related to science fiction and economics will assist other readers and critics who are interested in this subject The Complete Novels Olaf Stapledon, 2023-11-13 In The Complete Novels Olaf Stapledon presents a profound synthesis of his visionary works that push the boundaries of speculative fiction Blending philosophical inquiry with imaginative world building Stapledon explores the vastness of time and space human evolution and the implications of existentialism His narrative style is characterized by sweeping lyrical prose and a multi perspective approach that invites readers to ponder the fate of humanity within a cosmic framework Each novel serves as a contemplative meditation on themes of collective consciousness social evolution and the ethical dilemmas of progress marking Stapledon as a pioneer of science fiction Olaf Stapledon a British philosopher and author drew upon his academic background in philosophy and history to craft narratives that transcend mere entertainment His experiences during World War I and his interest in emerging scientific paradigms undoubtedly influenced his writing Stapledon's works though often overlooked have been seminal to the genre and have sparked the imaginations of later writers including Arthur C Clarke and Isaac Asimov The Complete Novels is highly recommended for readers seeking a deep intellectual engagement with the genre Stapledon's pioneering vision will resonate with those intrigued by big ideas and the exploration of humanity's potential This collection is not just a testament to his imaginative prowess but also a necessary reflection on our place in the universe Moral Authority, Men of Science, and the Victorian Novel Anne DeWitt, 2013-07-18 Nineteenth century men of science aligned scientific practice with moral excellence as part of an endeavor to secure cultural authority for their discipline Anne DeWitt examines how novelists from Elizabeth Gaskell to H G Wells responded to this alignment Revising the widespread assumption that Victorian science and literature were part of one culture she argues that the professionalization of science prompted novelists to deny that science offered widely accessible moral benefits Instead they represented the narrow aspirations of the professional as morally detrimental while they asserted that moral concerns were the novel's own domain of professional expertise This book draws on works of natural theology popular lectures and debates from the pages of periodicals to delineate changes in the status of science and to show how both familiar and neglected works of Victorian fiction sought to redefine the relationship between science and the novel ... Bibliotheca Staffordiensis; or, a bibliogr. account of books a. other printed matter rel. to - printed or publ. in - or written by a native, resident, or person deriving a title fr. - any portion of the county of Stafford: giving a full collation a. biogr. not. of authors a. printers ... Rupert Simms, 1894 Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi, 2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a similar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book

The Jewish Novel in the Ancient World Lawrence M. Wills, 2015-03-11 Lawrence M Wills here traces the literary evolution of popular Jewish narratives written during the period 200 BCE 100 CE In many ways these narratives were similar to Greek and Roman novels of the same era as well as to popular novels of indigenous peoples within the Roman Empire Yet as a group they demonstrated a variety of novelistic innovations the inclusion of adventurous episodes passages of description and of dialogue concern with psychological motivation and the introduction of female characters Wills focuses on five novels Greek Esther Greek Daniel Judith Tobit and Joseph and Aseneth Drawing on a wide range of theoretical works he delineates the techniques and motifs of the Jewish novel shows how the genre both initiated and distanced itself from nonfictional prose such as historical and philosophical writing discusses its relation to Greco Roman romance and describes the social conditions governing its emergence and reception Wills also places the novels in historical context situating them between the Hebrew Bible on the one hand and subsequent developments in Jewish and Christian literature on the other Wills sees the Jewish novel as a popular form of writing that provided amusement for an expanding audience of Jewish entrepreneurs merchants and bureaucrats In an important sense he maintains it was a product of the novelistic impulse the impulse to transfer oral stories to a written medium to reach a more literate audience

Reinventions of the Novel, 2021-11-01 The history of the Novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question The sixteen articles in Reinventions of the Novel investigate connections differences and similarities in the Novel around the world for the past three hundred years Rather than searching for the essence of the genre they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives considering such matters as tradition and modernity realism rhetoric and identity tableau and spatiality and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Günter Grass while canonical classics like Proust Joyce Richardson and Goethe are read in prosaic pragmatic and media specific contexts

In the 1920s many people predicted the death of the novel now more than ever it seems to be the dominant literary form perhaps because it is the same yet always different
