When the Tides Held the Moon Venessa Vida Kelley, 2025-04-29 The Shape of Water meets The Greatest Showman in this beautifully illustrated queer historical cozy fantasy as a young Puerto Rican immigrant goes through a journey of love and self discovery after capturing a merman for a Coney Island sideshow act in turn of the 20th century New York A lushly illustrated historical romance This book is a charming fable an elemental dance of fire and water THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW This is the start of something special TJ KLUNE New York Times bestselling author of The House in the Cerulean Sea Benigno Benny Caldera knows an orphaned Boricua blacksmith in 1910s New York City can't call himself an artist But the ironwork tank he creates for famed Coney Island playground Luna Park astounds everyone especially the eccentric side show proprietor who commissioned it Benny's work earns him an invitation to join the show's eclectic crew of performers his first welcome in the city and share in their astonishing secret the tank Benny built is a cage for their newest exhibit a living breathing in the flesh merman stolen from the banks of the East River under a gleaming full moon The merman is more than a mythic marvel though Benny comes to know R o as a clever philosopher an observant traveler and a kindred spirit more beautiful and compassionate than any human he's ever met Despite their different worlds what begins as a friendship of necessity deepens to love leading Benny's heart into uncharted waters where he can no longer ignore the agonizing truth of R o s captivity and his own A cage is no place for a merman to survive Though releasing R o means betraying his new family bankrupting their home and losing his soulmate forever Benny must look within for the courage to do what's right and find a love strong enough to free them both From the First Rising Sun Charla Jean Morris,2011-08-10

While in medical school which I did not have the privilege of completing once a week we had a small group discussion class called Focus On Problems Each group had a leader a member of the medical school staff or someone closely associated with the school usually an MD or Ph D Our group leader was Dean of the Medical School H David Wilson MD One class period focused on working with patients of different ethnic backgrounds Dr Wilson asked me what were some of the traditions of my tribe in regard to medicine that would be helpful for a doctor to know My reply was that I had been raised like a white that I had grown up learning about various herbal and natural remedies but that I knew nothing about the specific medical traditions ceremonial or secular of my people I had always longed to know of the traditions of my people before that but circumstances of my family history had not allowed it That question in the Focus On Problems class caused that longing to intensify into a sharp pang of longing that would not be satisfied until many years later While in the first two years of medical school as a nontraditional student I was in an environment that encouraged the development of the knowledge of Native American traditions We had Native American speakers that came and elaborated on Native American traditions One area that was lacking was tribal histories but what academics label prehistory I commented to her that when white man came they did all they could to destroy our social and religious fabric so the old traditions were not passed down to most of the remaining members of the tribes Now we know nothing of our old history There is nothing left The white side of my family history is easy to know but not my Cherokee and Choctaw side She replied by saying that yes many of our peoples have lost their old traditions and it is sad The Last Prince of Atlantis Chronicles Book III Leonard Clifton,2020-06-16
