and that Irene is her namesake She lives off of pigeons eggs and spins spiderwebs brought by the pigeons Irene tells Lootie about her grandmother but Lootie doesn't believe her The next day Irene goes in search of her grandmother but isn't able to find her and assumes she was dreaming A few days after she meets her grandmother Irene and Lootie go for a walk The two wander too far and darkness begins to fall Just as a group of goblins begins harassing them from the shadows Curdie a young miner comes upon the pair He scares the goblins away by singing loudly and Irene promises him a kiss at a later date The next night Curdie decides to stay in the mines earning extra wages to buy a red petticoat for his mother Curdie overhears a family of goblins talking about how they have very sensitive feet He follows them to the goblin palace where he learns about the goblins plan to flood the mine and drown the miners A season or so passes and the princess gets a prick on her thumb from an old brooch Her sore quickly becomes infected and Lootie puts her to bed Irene wakes up in the night and wanders again to her grandmother's tower Her grandmother heals her with an ointment and Irene falls asleep in her grandmother's bed Irene wakes in her own bed having promised to go back to the tower Friday night That Friday night a goblin creature climbs into Irene's window and she runs out of the house into the night No longer pursued she turns and sees her grandmother's light in the tower window and follows it home Irene's grandmother gives her a ring with an invisible thread made from a spider's web The goblins catch Curdie sneaking into their cavern and Curdie is successful at warding most of them off by stomping on their feet The goblin queen however is wearing stone shoes and manages to capture and imprison him Curdie is left to starve in the goblin prison but Irene is led to him by her magic thread and she rescues him Curdie manages to steal one of the goblin queen's shoes on their way out Following the thread Curdie and Irene head up to the grandmother's room Curdie can't see Irene's grandmother and is cross with Irene for what he thinks is a cruel joke The grandmother explains that Curdie isn't able to believe yet and therefore can't see her When Curdie arrives home he tells the whole story to his parents His mother relates a story from her childhood when a great white pigeon rescued her from a group of goblins She implies that the royal line has some magical powers and that Irene may have been telling the truth On another fact finding mission Curdie learns that the goblins plan to dig a tunnel into the castle to capture Princess Irene Upon her capture they plan to marry her to Harelip the goblin prince

The Princess and the Goblin - Large Print Edition

George MacDonald, 2020-12 There was once a little princess whose father was king over a great country full of mountains and valleys His palace was built upon one of the mountains and was very grand and beautiful The princess whose name was Irene was born there but she was sent soon after her birth because her mother was not very strong to be brought up by country people in a large house half castle half farmhouse on the side of another mountain about half way between its base and its peak The princess was a sweet little creature and at the time my story begins was about eight years old I think but she got older very fast Her face was fair and pretty with eyes like two bits of night sky each with a star dissolved in the blue Those eyes you would have thought must have known they came from there so often were they turned up in that direction

The ceiling of her nursery was blue with stars in it as like the sky as they could make it But I doubt if ever she saw the real sky with the stars in it for a reason which I had better mention at once The Princess and the Goblin George MacDonald,2021-06-07 This version Detailed Biographies Original Illustrations included Thoroughly organized Keeping all the original wording The Princess and the Goblin Princess Irene lives with her nurse Lottie and other servants in a large old castle farmhouse on a mountainside In the mountains surrounding the house are mines worked by such men as Curdie 12 years old and his father There are also subterranean caves and caverns where goblins live goblins who bear a grudge against the sun people because they took the land above ground from them The servants in the castle know about the goblins they are never to let the princess be out after dark One rainy day Princess Irene explores the house alone and discovers an unknown staircase that leads up several flights to a room where a beautiful old lady is spinning She is Irene s great great grandmother Irene a lady of undetermined age who had given her name to the princess and unknown to anyone in the castle has come to take care of her She is spinning a ball of thread for Irene The princess returns downstairs eager to tell Lottie about her grandmother Lottie says she imagined her and as Irene fails to find her grandmother the next time she looks for the stairs she wonders if this is true Irene and Lottie stay out after dark while out walking and Curdie rescues them from goblins with his songs for goblins are repulsed by music and rhymes Irene succeeds in finding her grandmother the next time she tries and receives from her the ball of the thread she has been spinning Curdie discovers by working late the goblins plot to kidnap the princess wedding her to the goblin prince He also discovers that the goblins weakness is their feet unprotected by shoes Curdie is captured while learning all this Following the thread that her grandmother has woven Irene reaches Curdie in the goblins cave and frees him He cannot see the thread that guides Irene nor does he see her grandmother when they eventually reach the castle He leaves in anger because he thinks she is making a fool of him He talks with his parents about this and his mother cautions him that just because he does not understand something is no reason to say that it isn t true The goblins attack is defeated by Curdie and the King s guards while Irene sleeps soundly at Curdie s house where her grandmother s thread has led her George MacDonald was a Scottish author poet and Christian minister Born in Huntly Aberdeenshire Scotland 1824 1905 He was educated at Aberdeen University and after a short and stormy career as a minister at Arundel where his unorthodox views led to his dismissal he turned to fiction as a means of earning a living He wrote over 50 books Known particularly for his poignant fairy tales and fantasy novels MacDonald inspired many authors such as G K Chesterton W H Auden J R R Tolkien C S Lewis and Madeleine L Engle Lewis wrote that he regarded MacDonald as his master Picking up a copy of Phantastes one day at a train station bookstall I began to read A few hours later said Lewis I knew that I had crossed a great frontier G K Chesterton cited The Princess and the Goblin as a book that had made a difference to my whole existence Truly a classic masterpiece The Princess and the Goblin George MacDonald,2013-12 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or
