Pieter Spierenburg

The Prison Experience:

The Prison Experience Pieter Spierenburg, 2007-01-01 Though the prison is central to the penal system of most modern nations many believe that imprisonment did not become a major judicial sanction until the nineteenth century In this readable history Pieter Spierenburg traces the evolution of the prison during the early modern period and illustrates the important role it has played as both disciplinary institution and penal option from the late sixteenth century onward Placing particular emphasis on the prisons of the Netherlands Germany and France The Prison Experience examines not only the long term nature of prisons and the historical conceptions of their prisoners but also looks at the daily lives of inmates supplementing our understanding of social change and day to day life in early modern Europe

The Prison Experience Merry Morash, Pamela J. Schram, 2002-12-02 Confined to an institution and further burdened by patriarchal assumptions and stereotypes incarcerated women struggle to retain a sense of self worth for themselves and often for their children Scholarship on the subject typically has either ignored or trivialized the role of gender as an organizing feature of society The result is a lack of emphasis on the role played by gender in the lives of women in a correctional setting In this theoretically informed and empirically grounded textbook Morash and Schram explain the realities of prison life for women from a feminist perspective The hope for reform begins with an informed public so that a system premised on deterrence and punishment can also offer opportunities for rehabilitation

The Prison Chaplaincy, And Its Experiences Hosea Quinby, 2019-12-18 In The Prison Chaplaincy And Its Experiences Hosea Quinby provides a profound exploration of the spiritual and social dimensions of life within prison walls Through reflective prose interspersed with poignant narratives Quinby delves into the emotional landscapes of both inmates and chaplains illuminating the transformative power of faith and compassion in an often dehumanizing environment The book adheres to a contemplative literary style rooted in 19th century reformist ideals making it a significant contribution to the literature of social justice and spiritual care Hosea Quinby an early advocate for prison reform and a dedicated chaplain draws upon his extensive experience in congregational ministry and direct involvement with the penal system His unique perspective shaped by the currents of the humanitarian movements of his time sheds light on the pressing issues of rehabilitation and moral guidance for those trapped in cycles of incarceration Quinby's background informs his earnest advocacy for empathy and understanding striving to bridge the divide between society and its incarcerated members This insightful work is not just for scholars or practitioners in the field of chaplaincy but is essential reading for anyone interested in the complexities of human redemption and societal responsibility Quinby's heartfelt narratives and keen observations encourage readers to reflect on their own perceptions of justice and mercy making The Prison Chaplaincy And Its Experiences a timeless and transformative read

Masculinities and the Adult Male Prison Experience Jennifer Anne Sloan, 2016-05-18 This book critically analyses how men in prison act out their masculine identities It considers how men negotiate their time in prison which can involve being placed into a feminine position relative to other men and particularly looks at the subversion of heteronormative gender positionings through bodies spaces time and relationships Vulnerability is also taken as a key consideration and men are shown to act out their masculinities for the benefit of an audience that matters to them However that audience is shown to be subject to change at any point in time Using extensive ethnographic data drawn from adult male prisoners the book adopts the viewpoint of the individual prisoner as a frame to consider masculinity It also advances ethnographic research in criminology by reflecting upon the identity of researchers in prisons particularly the female researcher s gendered identity in such environments It will be of great interest to scholars of penology gender and ethnography

The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison

Emma Burt, 2023-12-29 The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison focuses on the lived experience of maintaining innocence in the prison environment and highlights the struggles and pain that such a claim can cause Using the little utilised means of conducting an interview via a series of letters the book details the experiences of 64 prisoners maintaining innocence in England and Wales and examines in depth what is unique to this population The chapters cover coping mechanisms relationships maintained with relatives relationships formed with prisoners and staff and the perceived effect of their claims on matters of progression and parole It draws on material from criminology sociology law and psychology to provide a holistic account of this population s experiences The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison will be of great interest to students and scholars across the disciplines of criminology criminal justice law sociology and psychology

Transgender and Non-Binary Prisoners' Experiences in England and Wales Olga

Suhomlinova, Saoirse Caitlin O'Shea, 2024-11-28 Rich in inimitable detail Transgender and Non Binary Prisoners Experiences in England and Wales documents the lived experiences of trans women and non binary persons incarcerated in men s prisons critically analysing Prison Service policies and practices to suggest ways to improve their conditions of confinement

Prison Life Ian O'Donnell, 2023-02-14 How prisons around the world shape the social lives of their inhabitants Prison

Life offers a fresh appreciation of how people in prison organize their lives drawing on case studies from Africa Europe and the US The book describes how order is maintained how power is exercised how days are spent and how meaning is found in a variety of environments that all have the same function incarceration but discharge it very differently It is based on an unusually diverse range of sources including photographs drawings court cases official reports memoirs and site visits Ian O'Donnell contrasts the soul destroying isolation of the federal supermax in Florence Colorado with the crowded conviviality of an Ethiopian prison where men and women cook their own meals seek opportunities to generate an income elect a leadership team and live according to a code of conduct that they devised and enforce He explores life on wings controlled by the Irish Republican Army in Northern Ireland s H Blocks where men who saw the actions that led to their incarceration as politically motivated moved as one in perpetual defiance of the authorities He shows how prisoners in Texas took to the courts to overthrow a regime that allowed their routine subjugation by violent men known as building tenders who had been selected by staff to supervise and discipline their peers In each case study O Donnell presents the life story of a man who was molded by and in return molded the institution that held him This ensures that his reflections on law and policy as well as on theory and practice never lose sight of the human angle Imprisonment is about pain after all and pain is personal Prison Etiquette Holley Cantine,Dachine Rainer,2001-02-28 Of the fifty thousand Americans who declared themselves conscientious objectors during World War II nearly six thousand went to prison many serving multiyear sentences in federal lockups Some conscientious objectors notably Robert Lowell William Everson and William Stafford went on to become important figures in the literary life of their country while others were participants and teachers in the civil rights and antiwar movements of the 1950s 1960s and 1970s This long out of print book reprinted from the rare original 1951 edition collects firsthand accounts by conscientious objectors who were imprisoned for their beliefs Prison Etiquette is illustrated with eleven line drawings by Lowell Naeve Surviving the Prison Place Diana Medlicott,2024-07-01 Suicide in prison is a growing problem across the developed world Originally published in 2001 this book sets out to enlarge understanding of the complexities of suicidal feelings and of the part played by some inalienable features of prison life It does this by presenting and analysing prisoners accounts of their most intimate responses to the deprivations of prison in particular the stringent control and management of their personal time and space These accounts show in more graphic form than previous literature the depth of suffering as well as the range of creative responses produced in prisoners through interaction with the prison environment Prisoners themselves have enormous need for more humane and interactive management of the problem and their accounts show clearly how prisoner expertise could be utilised in profoundly significant ways This book will be of interest to all who research live or work in prison as well as to students and practitioners in criminology penology criminal justice sociology psychology psychiatry and health Marching Powder: A Journey through Prison Life Marty Wolf,2025-04-05 An enthralling expos into the harrowing world of San Pedro one of South America s most notorious prisons Marching Powder unveils the harsh realities and daunting challenges faced by its inmates Through the gripping account of Rusty Young the book delves deep into the prison s complex social dynamics the unwritten codes of conduct that govern its inmates and the psychological toll of prolonged isolation and despair Rusty s experiences as a foreigner in San Pedro highlight the prejudice and discrimination prevalent within its walls As he navigates the treacherous waters of prison life his story offers a poignant examination of humanity s resilience and the transformative power of hope amidst adversity Lived Institutions as History of Experience Johanna Annola,Hanna Lindberg,Pirjo Markkola,2023-12-26 This open access book focuses on institutions that were produced and formed by the emerging welfare state How were institutions experienced by the people who interacted with them How did institutions as sites of experience shape and structure people s everyday lives Histories of institutions have mainly focused on the structures and power relations produced by institutional settings Likewise despite an extensive historiography of the welfare state reflections on individuals experiences of welfare are few By using lived institutions as its conceptual frame this edited collection merges the fields of institutional studies the history of the welfare state and the novel and vibrant field of the history of experience A Fragment of the Prison Experiences Emma Goldman, 2025-04-17 A Fragment of the Prison Experiences delivers an unflinching account of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman's imprisonment in Jefferson City State Prison and Atlanta Federal Penitentiary between 1918 and 1919 This collaborative memoir exposes the brutality of early 20th century penal systems through the eyes of two iconic anarchists Goldman's vivid recollections detail dehumanizing conditions forced labor and systemic oppression faced by political dissidents while Berkman's essays dismantle pseudoscientific theories of criminality arguing that crime stems from poverty and social inequities The work includes firsthand documentation of their clashes with prison authorities such as Berkman's public rebuttal to Warden Fred Zerbst and critiques the Lombrosian myth of the born criminal Interwoven with philosophical reflections on justice this narrative serves as both a personal testimony and a radical call for prison reform Its blend of memoir and polemic makes it indispensable for readers exploring political biographies histories of social activism and critiques of carceral institutions The Prison Experience of Career Criminals Joan Petersilia, Paul Honig, 1980

Imprisonment: Identity, Experience and Practice Rose Ricciardelli, Katharina Maier, 2019-07-22 Preliminary Material Rosemary Ricciardelli and Katharina Maier Are Friends Adjacent The Manx Experience in European POW Camps Stacey Astill British Quakers Use of Prison Experience Pacifism Conscientious Objection and Penal Reform Mike Nellis and Maureen Waugh Prisoner Subjectivity and Resistance through Restorative Justice Diane Crocker and Vicki Chartrand Lifting the Liberal Veil Examining the Link between Role Orientation and Attitudes toward Prisoners for Provincial Correctional Officers Rosemary Ricciardelli and Michael Adorjan Limits to Prisoners Rights and Unlimited Supervision Christine M Graebisch Rights and Living Conditions of Pre Trial Detainees in the People's Republic of China Elisa Nesossi A Snapshot of Incarceration Global Closure Rosemary Ricciardelli and Katharina Maier The Prison at the Crossroads Anastasia Karamalidou, Alison Spurgeon-Dickson, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 The contributors to this volume highlight the immanence of the pains of imprisonment document their evolution as well as their differing expressions and manifestations with regards to a diversity of prisoner groups and national prison systems and explore ways of humanising the prison experience and normalising prison life The Prison Boundary Jennifer Turner, 2016-07-13 This book explores the idea of the prison boundary identifying where it is located which processes and performances help construct and animate it and who takes part in them Although the relationship between prison and non prison has garnered academic interest from various disciplines in the last decade the cultural performance of the boundary has been largely ignored This book adds to the field by exploring the complexity of the material and symbolic connections that exist between society and carceral space Drawing on a range of cultural examples including governmental legislation penal tourism prisoner work programmes and art by offenders Jennifer Turner attends to the everyday practised manifestations and negotiations of the prison boundary The book reveals how prisoners actively engage with life outside of prison and how members of the public may cross the boundary to the inside In doing so it shows the prison boundary to be a complex patchwork of processes people and parts The book will be of great interest to scholars and upper level students of criminology carceral geography and cultural studies

The Criminal Prisons of London, and Scenes of Prison Life

Henry Mayhew, John Binny, 1862 A fragment of the prison experiences of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman, 2022-01-17 A Fragment of the Prison Experiences of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman offers a profound exploration into the personal and philosophical struggles of early 20th century anarchists This collection captures a vivid blend of emotional intensity and political commentary shedding light on the personal sacrifices and unwavering convictions of its subjects The anthology traverses various literary styles including reflective narratives and poignant essays to showcase the depth of experiences endured by these emblematic figures during their incarceration Readers are provided an intricate mosaic of revolutionary thought and enduring resilience without sacrificing literary elegance The collection weaves the personal accounts of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman stalwarts of the anarchist movement against the backdrop of a repressive political environment Their experiences are not isolated musings but are deeply rooted in broader sociopolitical currents and the historical ideologies they championed Through their distinct yet harmonious narratives the anthology delves into the enduring struggles for justice and liberty combining a wealth of insights that resonate with the cultural upheavals of their era Together Goldman and Berkman provide a nuanced view of the anarchist ideology embellished with profound humanism This anthology offers an unparalleled opportunity to engage with the intimate and transformative reflections of Goldman and Berkman It is a remarkable resource for those interested in the intricacies of political dissent and the multifaceted nature of activist experiences The collection invites readers to contemplate the persistent and universal themes of freedom and resistance fostering a dialogue between the historical context and the persistent quest for social justice For students historians and those passionate about the multifarious human spirit this volume is an educational gem inviting continual reflection and exploration

Prison Chaplains on the Beat in US and UK Prisons

George Walters-Sleyon, PhD, 2021-08-10 This book is about prison chaplains and their care for aging dying and dead prisoners in the penal systems of the United States and the United Kingdom Since the 18th century prison chaplains have served as priests and pastoral caregivers to prisoners and prison staff The book traces the historical roles of prison chaplains in developing the managerial aspects of prisons focusing on their presence best practices and ways of conceptualizing their prison experiences in the modern prison cultures of the United States and the United Kingdom While prison chaplains have historically provided care to prisoners prison chaplaincy after 1970 has transformed This book shows how prison chaplains face new challenges in caring for prisoners under the penal policies and practices of mass incarceration Prison Chaplains on the Beat demonstrates how prison chaplains have conceptualized the practice of providing pastoral care to aging dying and dead prisoners in the United States and the United Kingdom through a person centered approach The book is both theoretical and empirical The empirical aspect focuses on the prison experiences of 31 prison chaplains from the United States and Scotland The theoretical aspect provides a conceptual understanding of the multi faceted roles of prison chaplains in the United States Scotland and England and Wales As a research in comparative criminal justice it argues that prison chaplains are fundamentally indispensable to prison management practices and managerial theories in the United States Scotland and England and Wales post 1970 Powerfully combines historical and empirical approaches to religion in prisons Brings new understanding of the pastoral and prophetic roles of prison chaplains and launches a searing ethical critique of mass incarceration The comparisons between the United States and Britain are instructive for current and future prison policy in both locations Dr David Grumett School of Divinity University of Edinburgh UK George Walters Sleyon s Prison Chaplains on the Beat offers a new perspective on the predicaments of contemporary penal politics and practices especially their racialized harms Chaplains are both observers of and participants in the contemporary prison scene and their perspective is a special but hitherto under reported one By reconsidering our carceral condition through this lens Walters Sleyon illuminatingly re states the moral and political challenges of mass incarceration Dr Richard Sparks School of Law University of Edinburgh UK

Understanding the Educational Experiences of Imprisoned Men Helen

Nichols,2021-02-28 Understanding the Educational Experiences of Imprisoned Men explores how adult male prisoners interpret and give value to their experiences of education presenting an opportunity to consider how education can be beneficial to prisoners including and beyond the enhancement of employability skills While the primary aim for education in prison has been to increase employability skills to prevent reoffending further attention needs to be given to the broader outcomes of educational experiences and the importance of the development of other personal attributes including self confidence empowerment and the ability to engage in positive relationships This book considers how education is also used by men in prison to cope with prison life to reconsider their identity and to develop and maintain relationships It also discusses the relationships that prisoners have with their teachers and other prison staff as well as the relationships that different types of prison staff have between each other In addition the role that education can play in the process of desistance from crime is discussed to provide an understanding of what changes occur in men who participate in educational courses This book will be of interest to not only students and scholars with an interest in imprisonment rehabilitation and criminal justice practice but also educationalists those who work in the prison setting and in social work It may also appeal to those involved in community development programmes and broader sociological research
