Excerpt from The Politics of Michigan 1865 1878 An attempt has been made in the following pages to set forth the attitude of Michigan on the leading political issues during the important years from 1865 to 1878 The party interests of the state naturally centered about national questions during this period but there were certain local issues such as railroad construction and internal improvement which also received much attention Probably the most striking features of Michigan politics at this time were the unbroken dominance of the Republican party and the prominence of the personal element arising from the unusual characteristics of several of the leaders My research has been greatly facilitated by many persons who have manifested a kind interest in its progress Mr Thomas A Wilson and Edward W Barber of Jackson Michigan very kindly contributed many personal reminiscences which were helpful because of their impartiality Mr C M Burton of Detroit Michigan extended to me the privilege of his excellent private library containing all the letters and papers of Jacob M Howard Among the many persons who assisted me in my research acknowledgments are due Mr Gaillard Hunt Mr William L Bishop and Miss Emily West of the Library of Congress and Mr Byron A Finney and Miss Fredricka Gillette of the Library of the University of Michigan Ann Arbor I am most deeply indebted however to Professor William A Dunning of Columbia University who has rendered the most valuable assistance throughout the preparation of this monograph by his advice both as to content and as to manner of treatment About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Politics of Michigan, 1865-1878 Harriette May Dilla, 1912 The Politics of Michigan. 1865-1878 Harriette M.
